Throughout the course of any season there are many "ups" and "downs" and no team illustrates this better than the 1982 Mustang Varsity Football Squad.

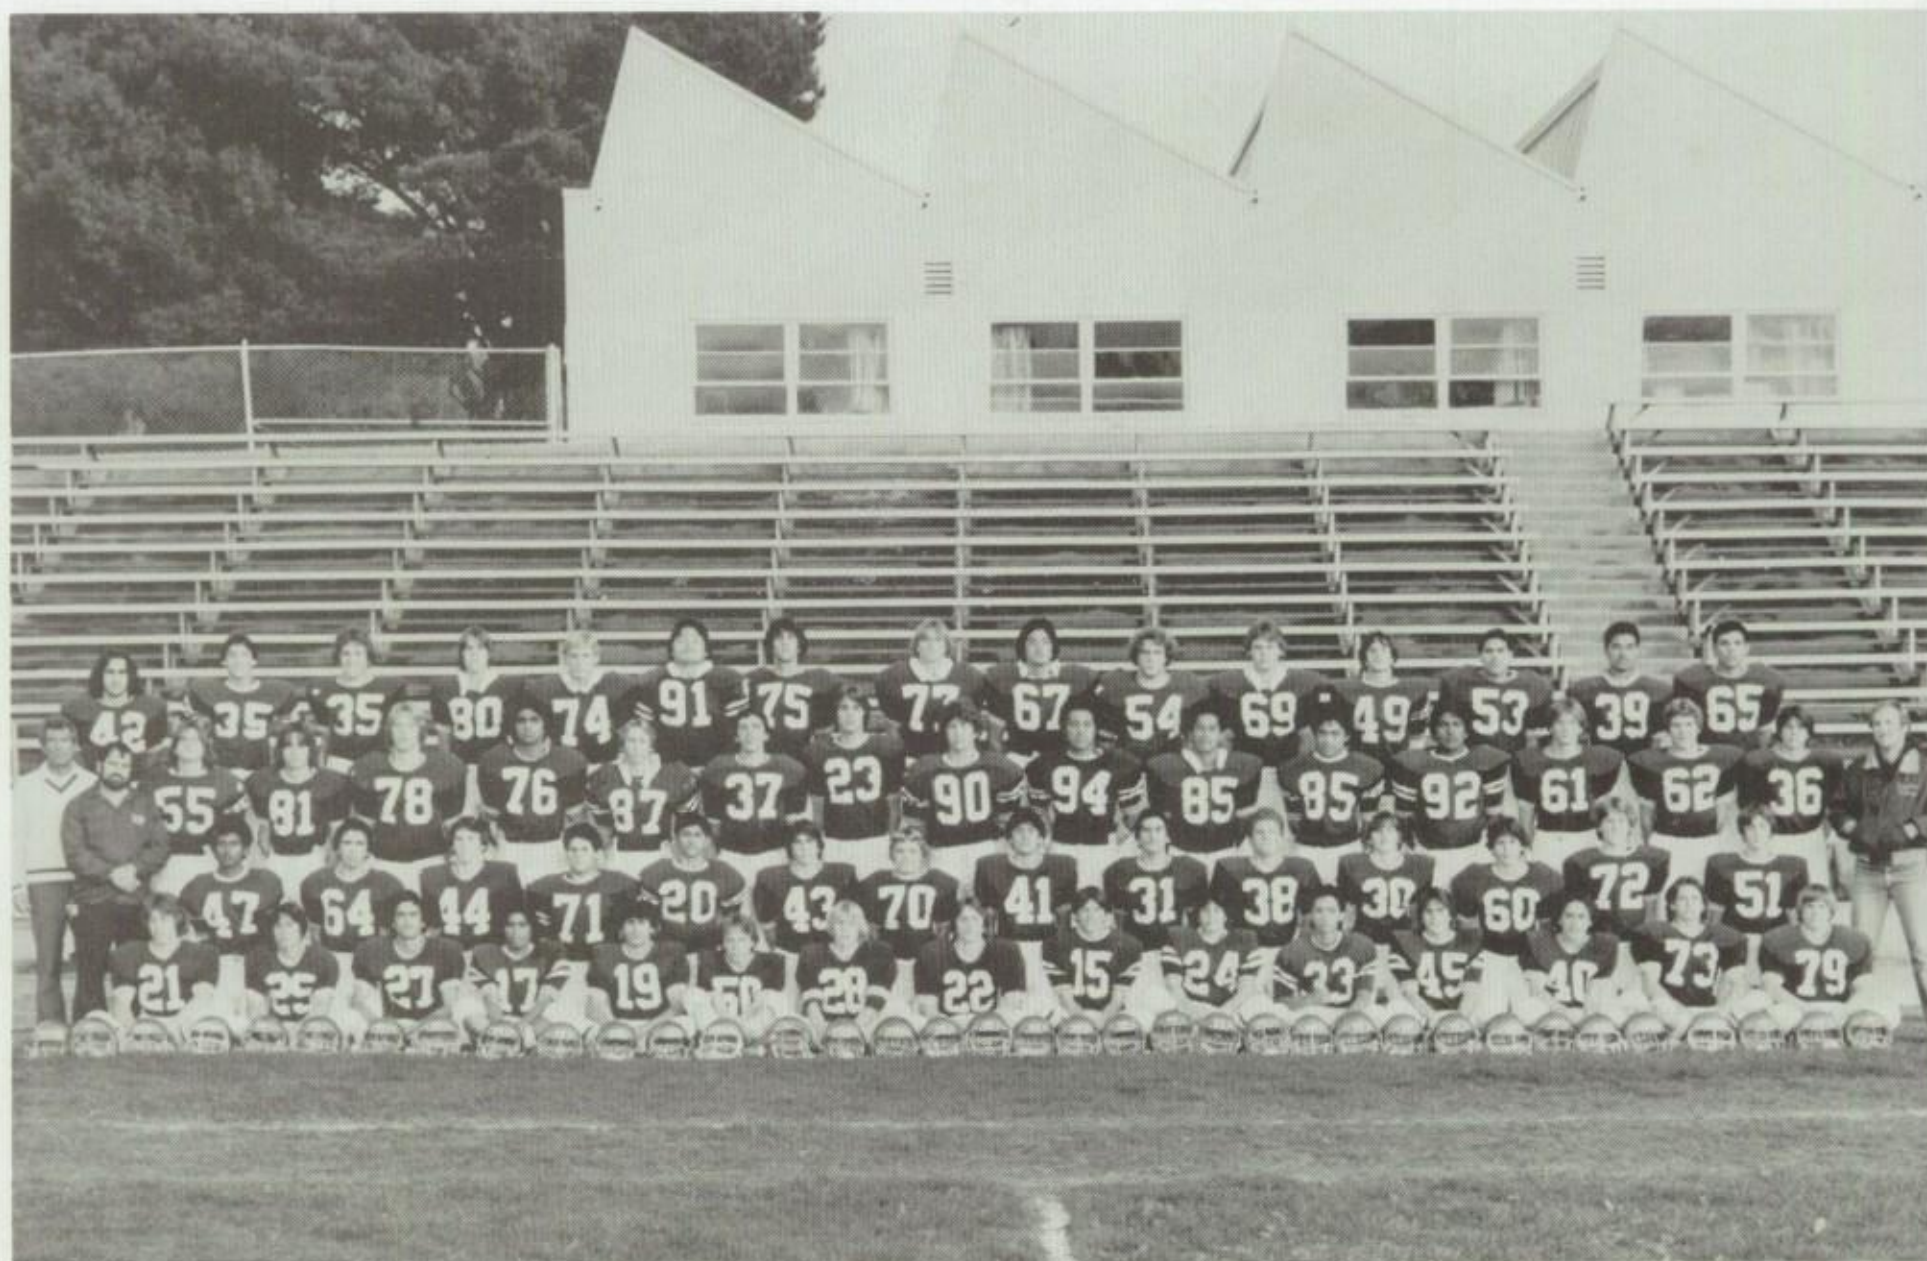

The season began on an extremely emotional "vp" game as the Mustangs beat Menlo-Atherton 9-7 on a last minute field goal by Marco Cardelli. Then the first "down" period set in with losses to Hillsdale and Woodside. The Mustangs were never more "up," however, than after their 34-32 victory over Aragon. Quarterback Steve Rider let two late touchdown drives, the last one culminating on a winning TD pass to Nat Medrano. With six seconds on the clock. This emotional wave was ridden right through a 28-6 victory over Sequoia. Then a series of three straight defeats crushed any thought of post-season play. Fortunately the season ended on an emotional "up" win, a 13-8 victory over rival Mills in the mud.

This years squad was not highly rated in any pre-season polls, but they fought their way through their "ups" and "downs" for a 4-5 record and a sixth place finish. Although they surprised a few people with their performance the squad failed to reach their own expectations.

Despite the sixth place finish, there were many outstanding individual performances which were justly honored. Five Mustangs were selected to the second-Team All-League squad. They included Steve Rider (Quarterback), Pat McGarvey (Wide Receiver), Gerald Palmer (Offensive Line), John Xerogeanes (Linebacker) and John Beals (Defensive Back). Joe Marinelli and Eric Wilcox rounded out the Mustang selection by being named Honorable Mention. Pat McGarvey, the County's second leading receiver, was named to the All-County Honorable Mention Team.

Other outstanding performances were turned in by Dan Nielson (Offense-Defense), Jim Owens (Offense-Defense), Mark Bianchi (Defense-Special Teams) and Nat Medrano (Offense).

3. A little spirit after winning the game.
4. Robert Eggeling and Jamie Edwards make the tackle.

After a weak season last year, this season's Frosh-Soph Football Squad had more than its share of question marks. So many, that it is doubtful that the coaching staff of Vince Marchi, Art Fanfelle and Al Brondolo were aware that they were inheriting a championship squad.

These JV gridders opened some eyes by crushing Woodside in their opener and then rolling to consecutive victories over Aragon, Sequoia and Burlingame. As the Mini-Tangs beat San Mateo for their fifth consecutive victory, more than a few people were talking title. Suddenly, things turned grim as the JV's bowed in defeat to Carlmont and a co-championship was about all that could be expected. They steamrolled Mills in their season finale and were hit with a stroke of good luck when Menlo-Atherton was upset, thus handing the outright championship to the Mini-Tangs on the final day of the season.

As befits a team which hung another pennant on Capuchino's Gym wall, a number of players received All-League status. Offensively, Mike Mephan, Rod Ruiz, Gualbert Yeo and Jarvis Mahe were awarded First-Team honors, while Steve Astesano made Second-Team and Frank Robertson was awarded Honorable Mention. Rod Masseroni should also be commended for his offensive play. Defensively, the Mustangs placed Brian Dawson, Mike Lopez and Mike McGarvie on the First-Team and Robin Nijor, Tony Hart and Robert Eggeling on the Second-Team. Congratulations on winning it all!

Field Hockey Team Sticks It To UM

1. Monica Medrano dribbling the ball.
2. Kelly Jacklich passing on target.

Under the direction of coach Lorie Rakstins, Copuchino is quietly building a Field Hockey dynasty. The 1982 Varsity Field Hockey Team adds to this tradition by capturing Capuchino's fourth consecutive league title with a 9-1 record. This sent them to the Central Coast Section playoffs as the #1 PAL representative where they lost a close opening round game to Braham of San Jose. This squad was led by All-League selections Gigi Morgan, Elaine Welch and rookie goalie Shelly Fox. Outstanding performances were also turned in by seniors Susan Sanders and Kelly Saunders-Jacklich. With eleven returning juniors, next year's squad will be equally impressive and will no doubt add to this growing dynasty.

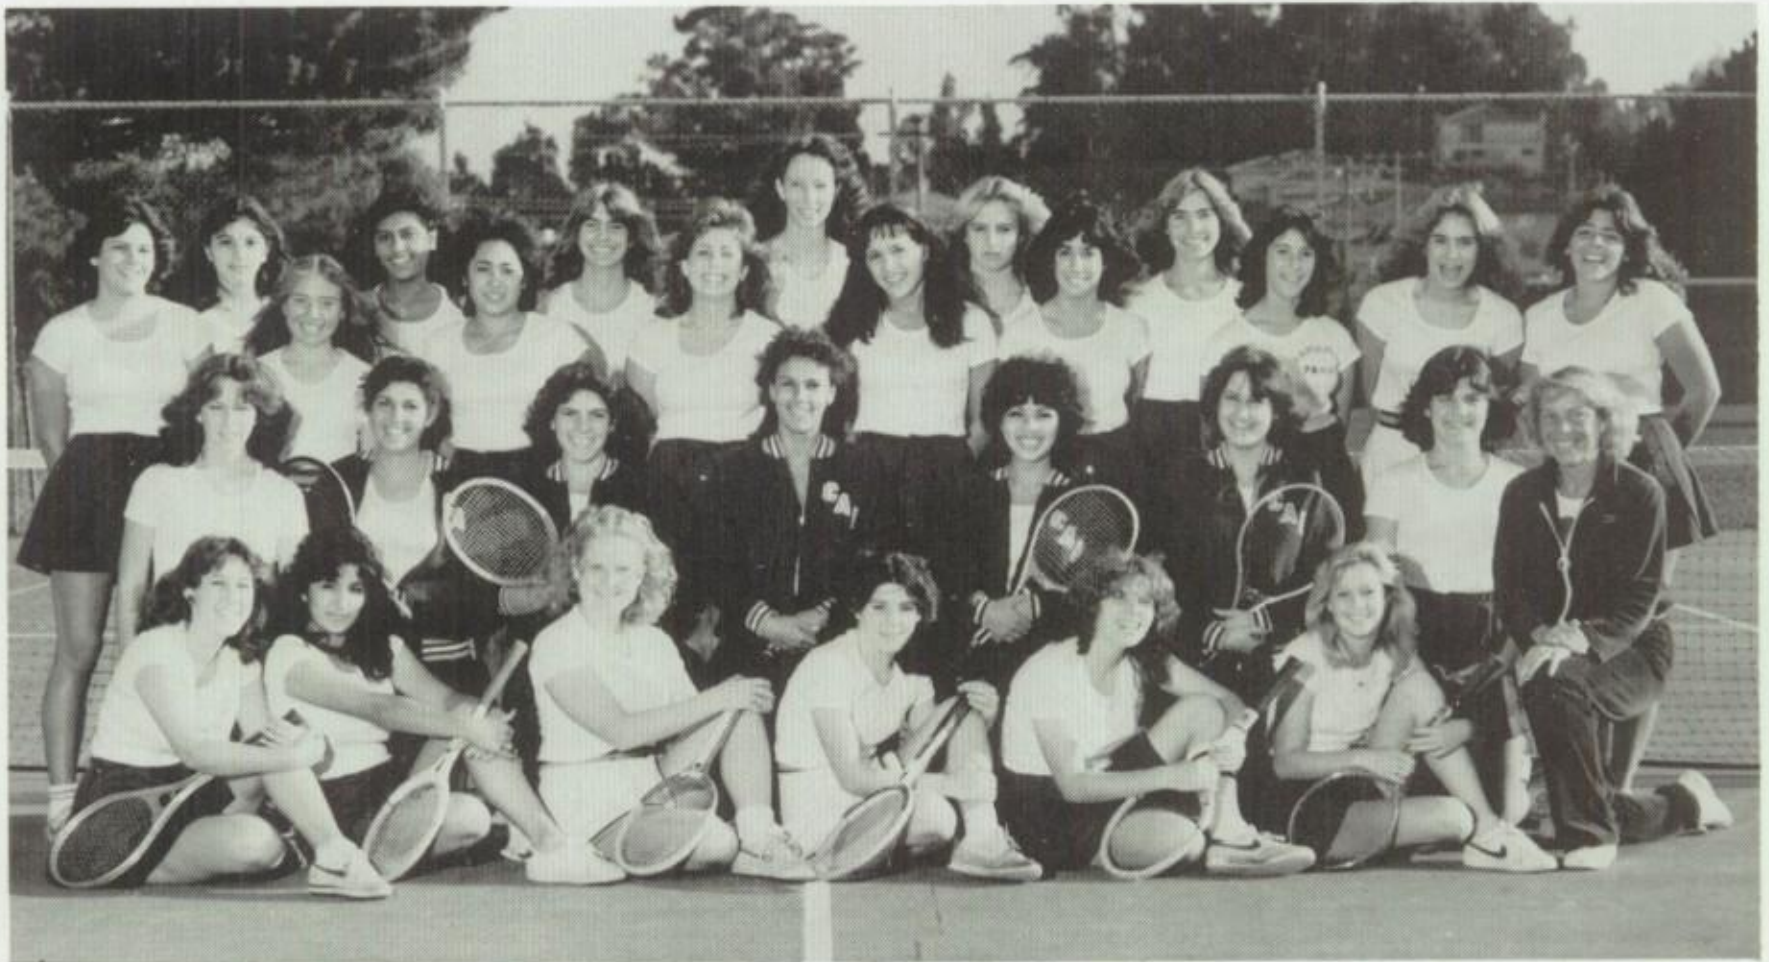

J.V. Comes Out On Top

The Junior Varsity squad has a nice little tradition just like the Varsity. They stretched their unbeaten streak to two years as they captured their second straight undefeated league title. This year's squad had two All-League players in Karin Theuner and Kathy Kolb.

1. Stephanie Balchious goes for the point.
2. Kris Mylin awaits the serve.
3. Jonna Froude makes a nice serve.

Under the immense strength of the newly formed PAL league, Mrs. Hart's netters were thoroughly beaten. Although they failed to win a match outright, the team had many close losses and no team could ace these girls at having fun. Mrs. Hart runs a program based on self-improvement and fun, and although such a program cannot compete with the intense programs of Burlingame and Mills, there is no doubt that our girls enjoy themselves a lot more.

The Varsity was led by singles players Stephanie Balchios, Joana Froude, Sonia Rosas, and Lynn Giannini. Outstanding doubles players were Jennifer Mitchell-Angini Kumar, Kim Balchois-Michelle Garcia, and Kris Mylan-Jill Ramirez.

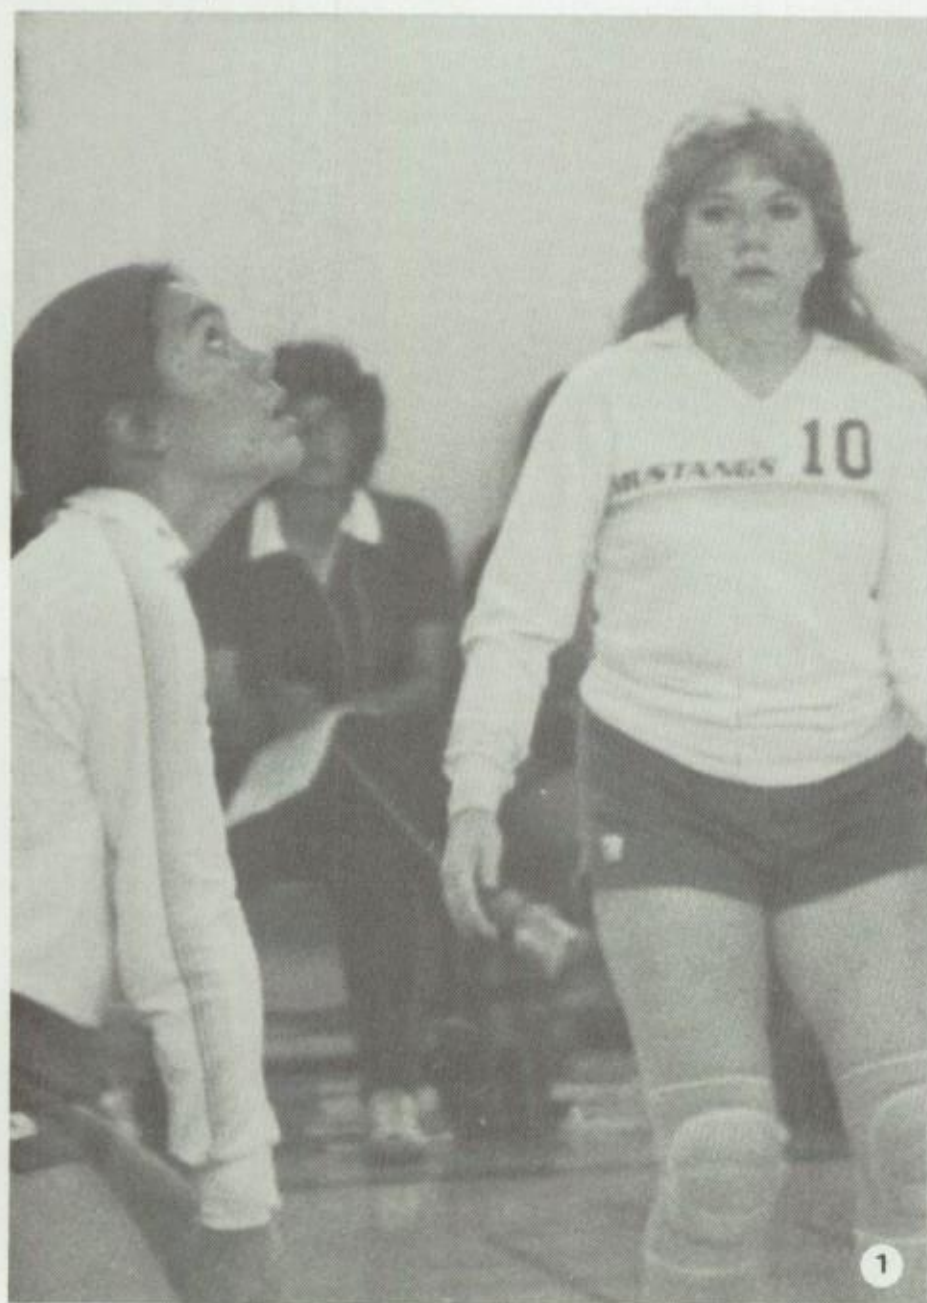

The Junior Varsity fared slightly better than the Varsity. They won a match when they downed Sequoia 5-0. Lori Priesse and Jennifer Prescott were number one doubles and were helped out by Coleen Wind-Penny Cohen and Claudia Hoffman-Cheryl Brush.

Varsity Goes To Playoffs: JV's Unbeaten

This year's Varsity spikers had the size and strength to really do well. The team was talented, but a little inexperienced with three and sometimes four junior starters. Coach Don LaClurge guided them to a sixth place finish (4 wins-5 losses). These girls were better than their sixth place finish indicated and they proved that by pulling off a major upset of Woodside in the opening round of the playoffs (15-7, 15-9). However, Sequoia proved too much in the semi-finals as the Mustangs were eliminated. The team was led by first-team All-League selection Felicia Lavulo, second-team All-Leaguer Danielle Velez, Honorable Mention selection Tia Netane, veteran Laura Borg, junior Amy McNaughton as well as Kim Bartholomew, Marcie Hernandez and Kim Wilson. Cap's Foreign Exchange Student Annette Fenton participated on the varsity and she felt it was one of the best experiences of her trip.

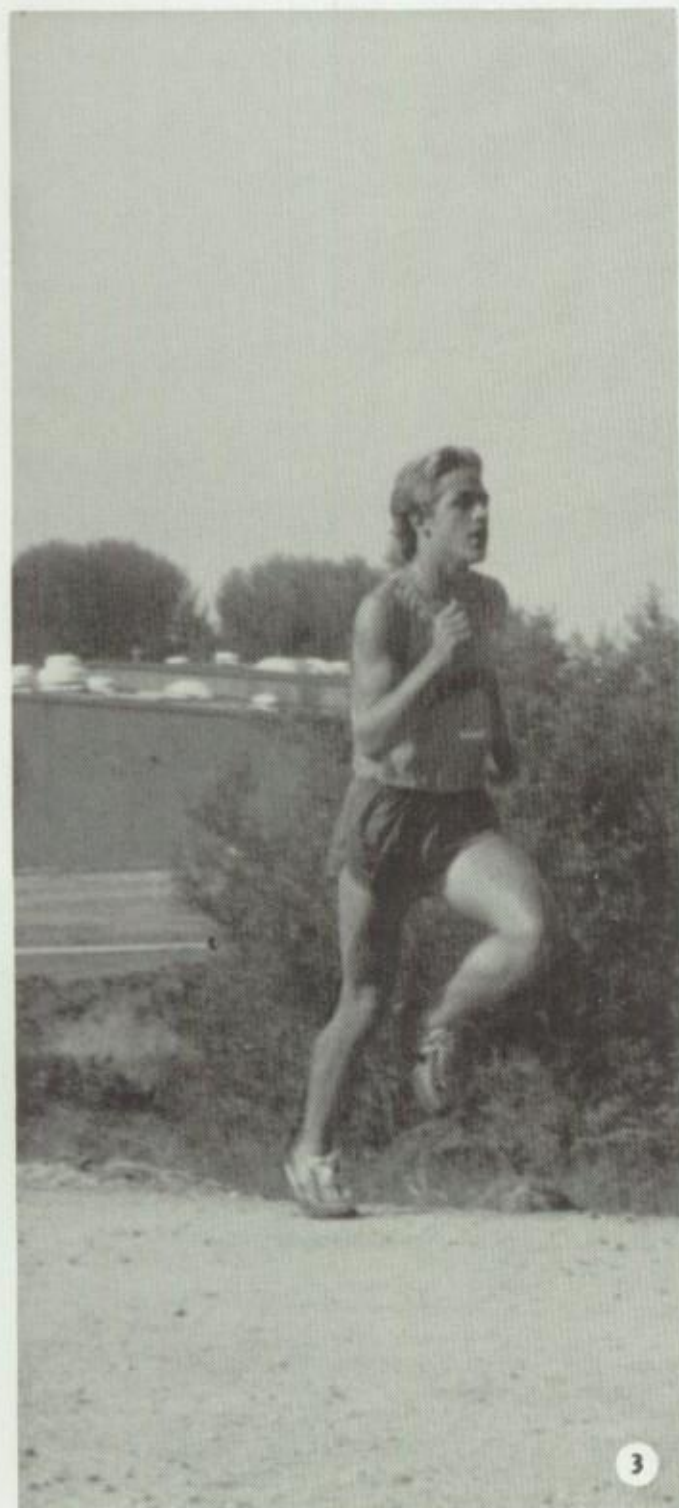

The Junior Varsity this year was simply awesome. Starters Noreen Baughman, Jody Maule, Marlene Orrante, Stacy Lavatui, Tamy Lavulo and Liza Naipo as well as super-subs Betsy Mahe and Lisa Neal rolled right through the league with a 9-0 record and a PAL.

1. Tia Netane setting Felicia up for a powerful spike.
2. Danielle Velez getting ready to serve.
3. Danielle & Kim on defense.
4. Concentration pays off with a point.

Cross Country Runs To The Top

1. Omar Urbina in the lead.
2. Guy Harriot moving through the pack.
3. Paul Ghidossi sprinting for the finish.
4. Bob Jacobs out in front.
5. Dee Concannon running in front.

After suffering through two lean years due to youthful and inexperienced runners, Coach Al Stanbridge sat back and watched this year's now mature squad run their way to a varsity team championship. Paul Ghidossi (warming up for his expected assault on the Mustang Track Record Book this spring) led this squad. In taking the championship, five Mustangs made First-Team All-League. They included Ghidossi, Guy Harriott, Omar Urbina, Ken Ryerson, and Dennis Nelson, while Dee Dee Concannon made the girls All-League squad. With Ryerson, Ghidossi and Nelson returning next year, the Mustangs are a good bet to repeat their title.

Another reason for next year's optimism stems from this year's Frosh-Soph squad. Five sophomore All-Leaguers-Tim Hardy, Greg Frei, Bob Jacobs, Bob Edmonds, and Alan Clement-paced the Frosh-Soph to a Pal title. When these runners join the Varsity next year the combination could be awesome.

D's Upgrade Themselves

Coach Ernie Schnurpfeil came out of a brief one year retirement to head this year's C and D lightweight squads. Coach Schnurpfeil inherited a team which was a mixture of limited experience and intense competitiveness. Far from being the most talented team in the league, the C's combined the scoring punches of Second-Team all leaguers Don Lamure and Bryan Jefferson with athletic competitiveness of Matt Medrano and Steve Bowker, as well as an intense man-to-man defense. The result was a 5-4 record, a fourth place finish, and a playoff berth versus eventual champion Aragon. The Mustangs led Aragon through much of that contest, but a key injury to Don Lamure foiled their upset bid. The difference between these Mustangs and a possible PAL title was the lack of uniformity in their starting five.

The 1982 D squad battled its own inexperience all year. Other than point guard Tom Flahaven, these Mustangs had zero games of high school experience. This inexperience resulted in a 2-7 record. However, coach Schnurpfeil was extremely pleased with the team's progress and this progress was reflected in their two late season victories.

Varsity Ranked 10th, Placed 3rd.

Team - Coach Herames, A. Battani, P. Goff, N. Kroenchke, D. Balling, R. Heoft, M. Sellock. Middle Row - R. Holmes, P. Neilson, J. Zerogeanes, M. Barron, K. Duggan, M. Galiea, T. Tofuna, M. Samson, A. Bosset, D. Chambliss, T. Bowler, S. Rider, L. Downes.

3. Timmy Bowler drives for the basket.
4. Rod with an easy layup.
5. Paul Goff puts it up.
6. Steve Rider on the drive.
7. Dennis Balling under the boards.

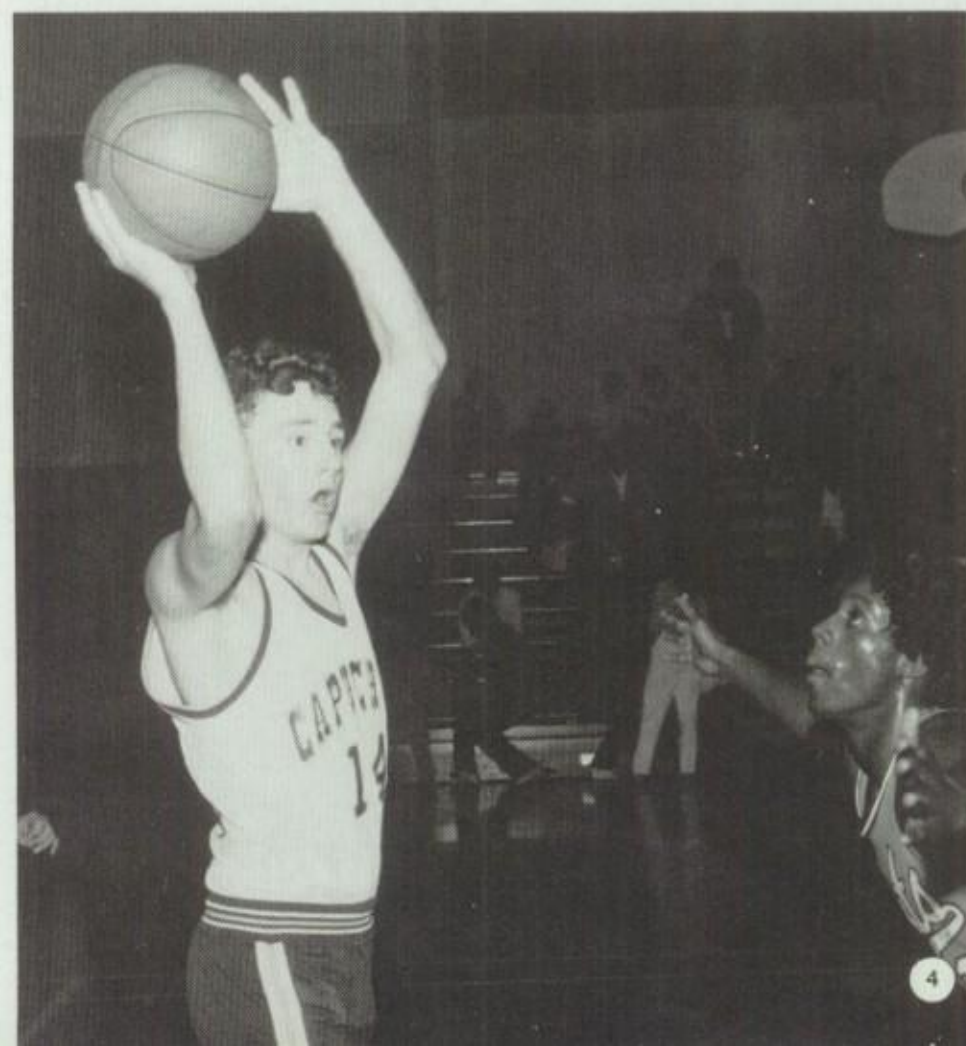

The varsity basketball schedule was a rigorous one. It was the toughest schedule in the county. More preseason games than ever were played.

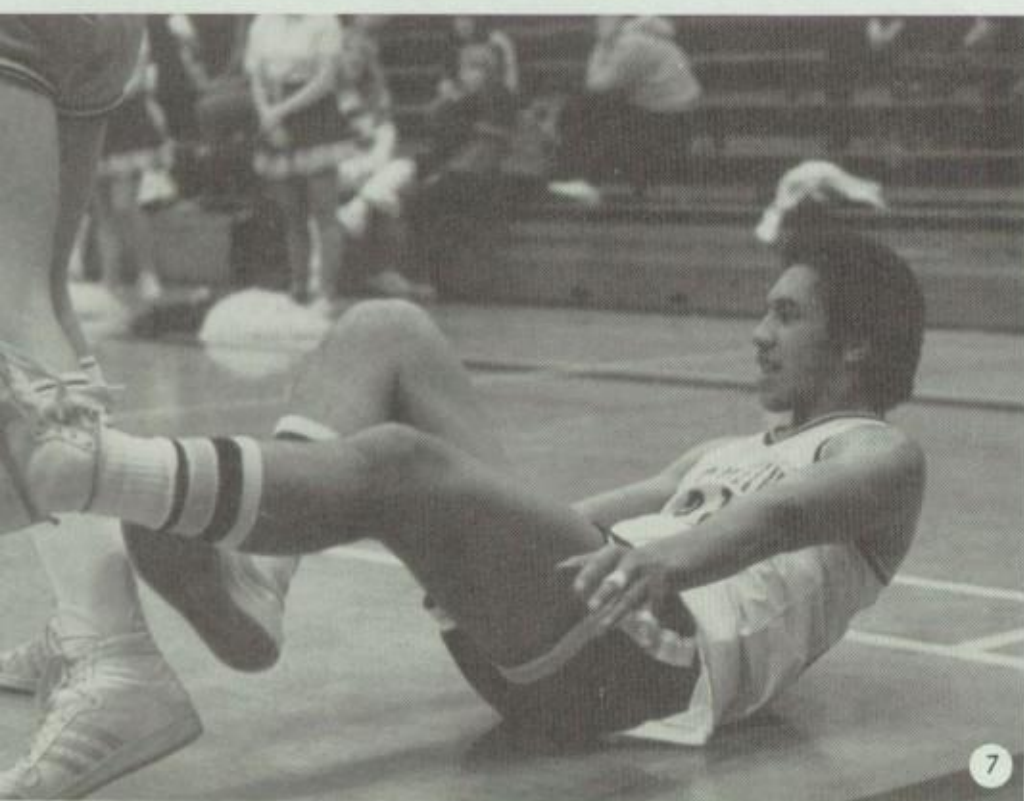

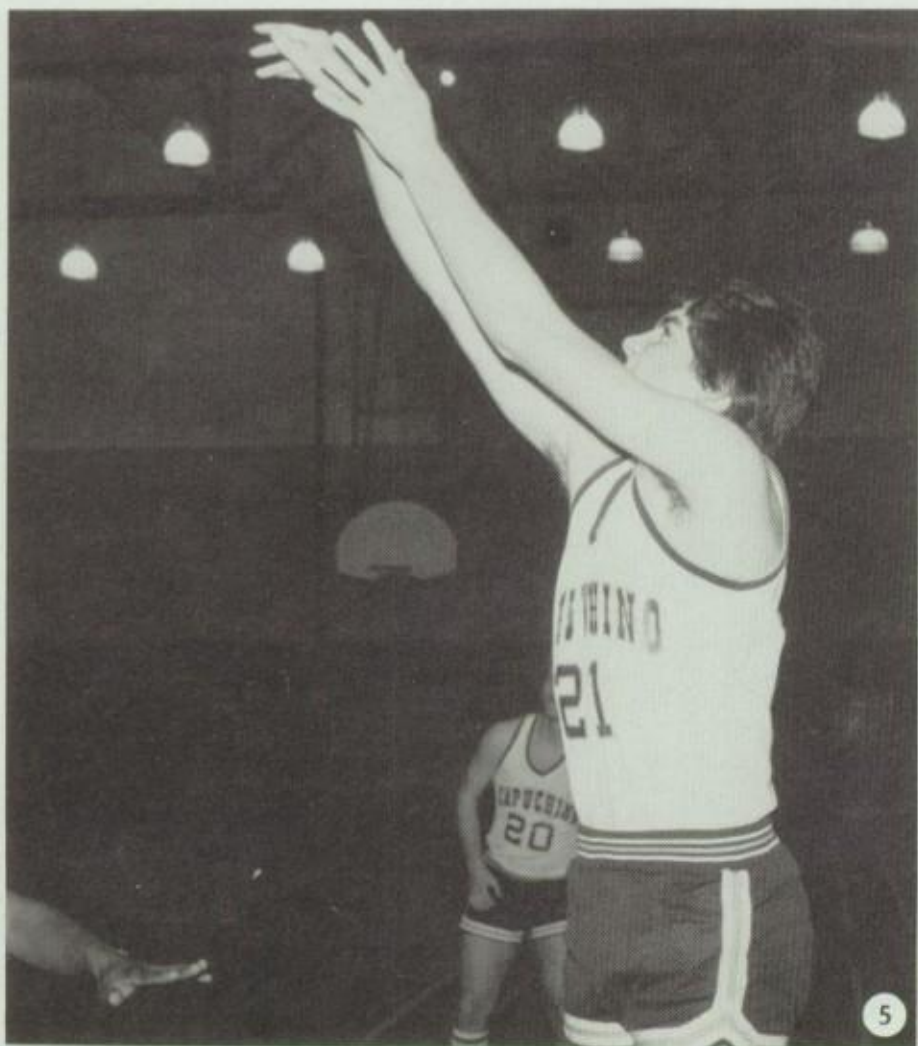

One player on the team, Adam Battani, was lost to an injury for the entire season. The team tried to work together even with the coach's indecision as to who should start each game.

Later on in the season, Steve Rider and Dennis Chambliss were at guards, Tony Tafuna and Paul Goff at forwards and Dennis Balling, Nick Kroenke and Rod Heoft each started a handful of games at center. Guard Tim Bowler provided offense off the bench. Mark Baron and Dennis Balling helped the team in rebounding. This squad did well at times. They beat Hillsdale on a Friday night. From there the Mustangs rolled to a 6 - 4 season, highlighted by a twenty point drubbing of San Mateo and concluded with a double-overtime victory over the Burlingame Panthers. The team's fifth place finish was good for a playoff birth.

In the playoffs Cap dumped Mills 38 - 35 in an impressive and exciting comeback victory. Most people believed that this win climaxed Cap's season. But, in their final game the Mustangs played heavily favored Woodside very tough until the later part of the game.

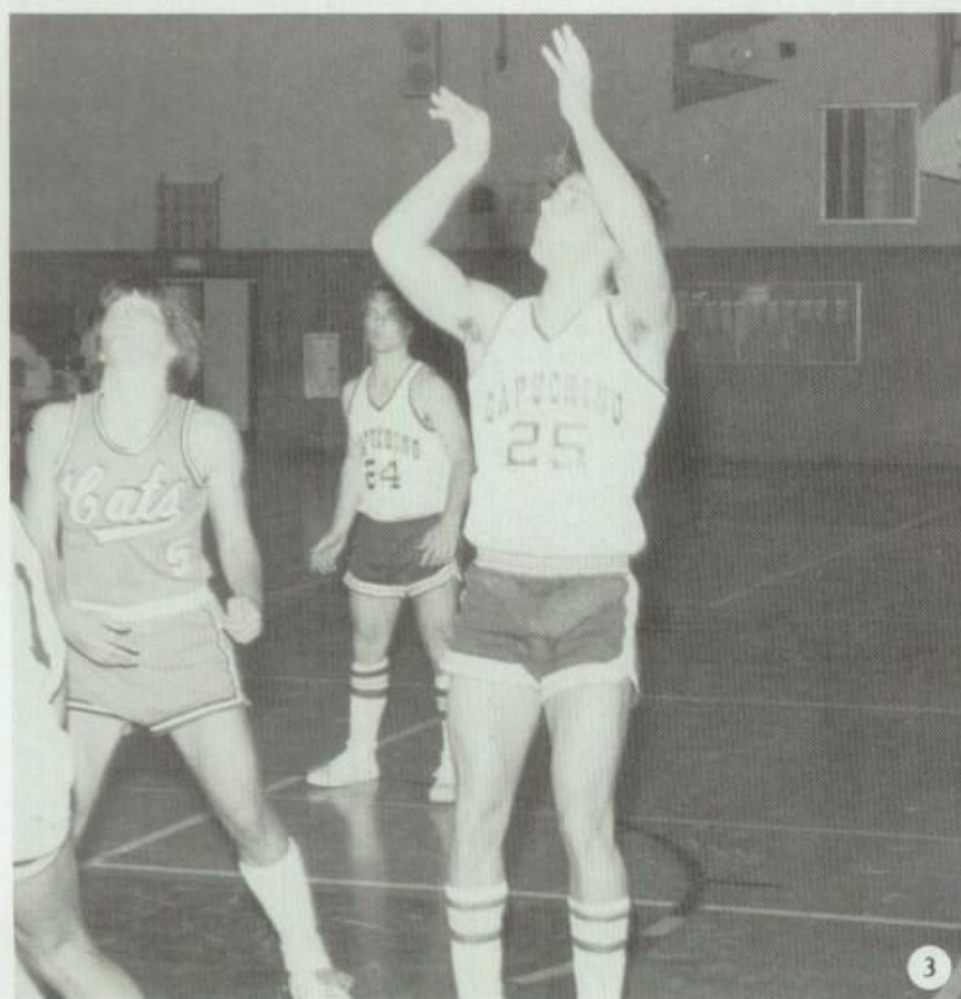

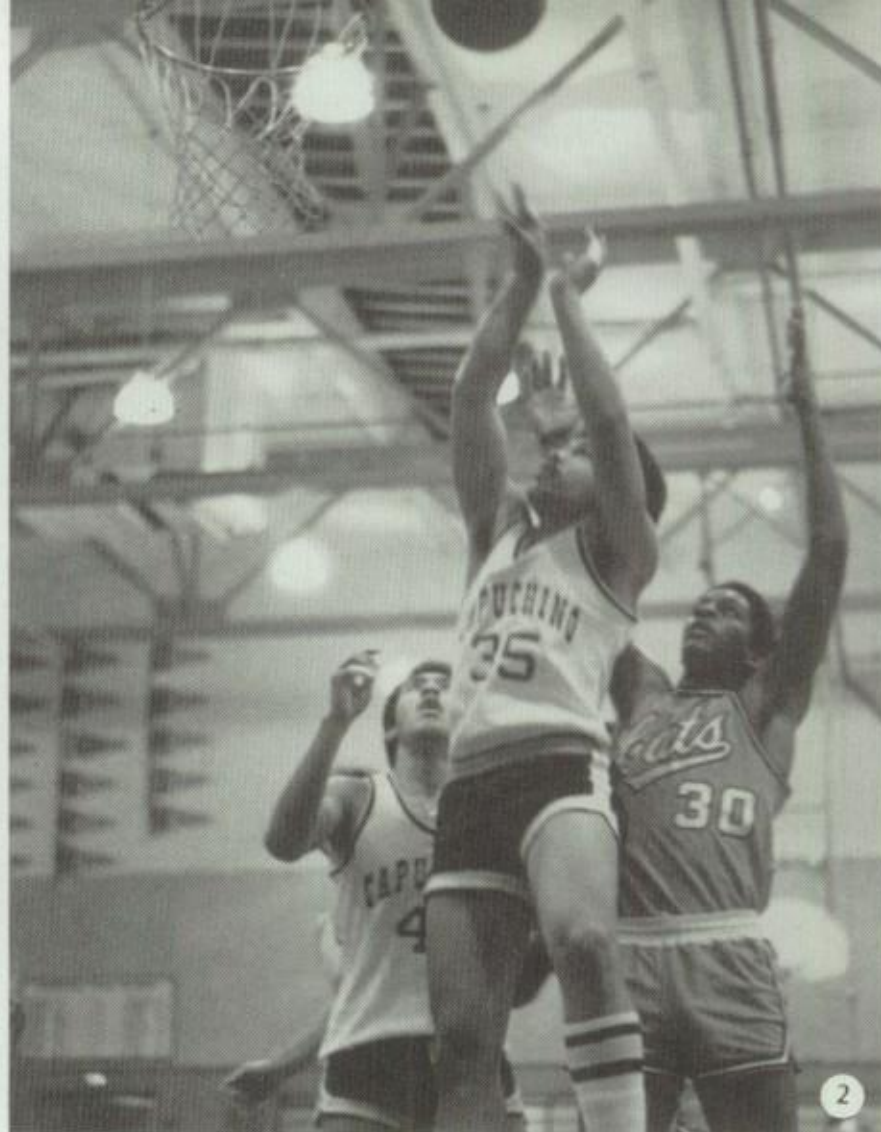

At least Cap had a third place playoff finish after being picked tenth in preseason. Paul Goff (12.2ppg.) was the only player to make all-league third team.

1. Dennis Chambliss showing good defense.
2. Mark Barron driving for the basket.
3. John Xerogeanes up for the jump.
4. Paul Goff looking for an open man.

Frosh-Soph Cagers Play With Ambition

Under first year coach Doug Mayer the Frosh - Soph squad struggled. With only one returning player with any experience and no starters from last year the Frosh - Soph battled their inexperience to a 3 - 7 league record. The season was not without highlights. John DeFelice averaged 15 points per game and made 2nd Team All - League while Tim Sandoval was named to the Honorable Mention Team. Other fine performances were put in by Steve Puccini, Ricky Dochauer and freshman Mike Lapuyode.

John DeFelice shoots for two.

1. Aram Kaloustian cuts off the baseline.
2. Robert LaPuyade going for the loose ball.
3. Baccei with the assist.
4. DeFelice showing good form.

Girls Varsity Basketball

The girls Varsity Basketball team this year was a "hard luck" squad. The ball just never seemed to bounce their way. In route to a 3-6 league record the squad missed the playoffs by one win and their margin of loss was an average of only three points a game. A few breaks here and there might have meant a few more wins and then it would have been playoff time. They proved they had playoff ability when they trampled playoff bound Burlingame in the season final 76-51. Yet despite their ability they didn't put the wins on the board.

The team was led by junior Gigi Morgan, a first-team All-Leaguer, and Felicia Lavulo who made Honorable Mention. Danielle Velez and March Hernandez, both juniors, also started. The fifth starting spot was filled either by Marleen Orante or Tanya Lavulo. The team was very young: it had 3 sophomores (Noreen Baughman, Jody Maul, and Marleen Orante), one freshman (Tanya Lavulo) and a handful of juniors. Coach Lori Rakstins feels their youth will make them a league contender next year.

The Junior Varsity squad, coached by Al Stanbridge, struggled through an 0-11 season. The squad was decimated by the loss of the three sophomores and one freshman to the Varsity, thus Mr. Stanbridge was forced to start mostly freshmen. Angela Eallas was named all-league Honorable Mention and Donna Duggan did well. Despite their winless season, Mr. Stanbridge feels that they progressed well and learned a lot.

Varsity Takes It To The Top.

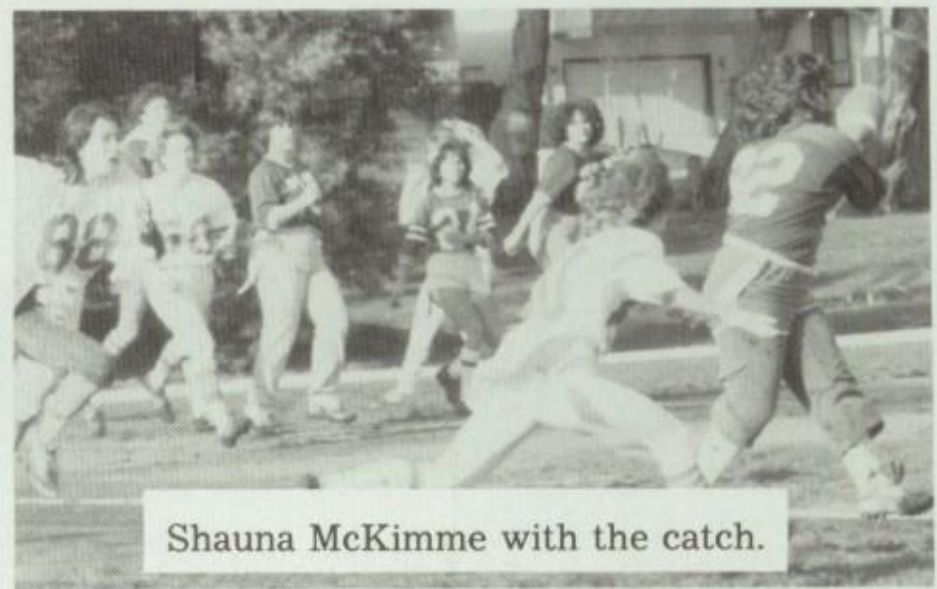

Since Capuchino began fielding a flag football team a few years ago they have not been overly successful. This year, however, coaches Al Brondolo and Gino Rinaldi turned that trend around. Sporting a team of five all leaguers, the Mustangs had their first winning season ever and fell painfully short of a co-championship. Going into the final game of the season versus Mills, Capuchino needed a win to get a co-championship with Hillsdale. Despite leading 7-6 at half, the girls were shut down and bowed to defeat 12-7 and settled for second place. Coach Brondolo called the squad, "the most talented and cohesive team Capuchino has ever fielded in flag football." The five all-leaguers included Maha Yaser, Laura Borg, Kim Wilson, and Shawna McKimmie. Congratulations, Girls!!!

Varsity Takes 3rd In CCS

Under the direction of Art Fanfelle, Capuchino wrestling has developed into a dynasty which every Mustang takes pride in.

The Varsity rolled through seven tournaments this year placing no lower than 3rd as a team in any one. It had an even easier time of it in the league season, going undefeated (7-0) and taking 8 individual championships out of 13 possible. It all, twelve Capuchino grapplers qualified for the CCS tournament. The league tournament was won with a total of 219.5 points, nearly doubling the 2nd place total of 111. Individual league champions included Pat Ramirez (98 lbs.), Nat Medrano (119 lbs), Matt Medrano (126 lbs.), Rich Ellingson (132 lbs), Mike Frei (145 lbs), Gerald Palmer (187 lbs), Larry Drexler (200 lbs) and Oscar Fakahua (224 lbs).

Going into the CCS finals Coach Fanfelle expected the team to do well and they responded. Behind the 2nd place finish of Rich Ellingson, the 3rd places of Gerald Palmer and Lenny Drexler, and the 4th place finishes of Nat and Matt Medrano, the team took 3rd place, the highest ever for a Mid-Peninsula League school. Not bad for a team that was rated as "just alright" in the pre-season polls!

With Ellingson, Drexler, and Ramirez along with Mike Walsh who placed second in League returning next year, Coach Fanfelle expects to dominate the PAL once again!

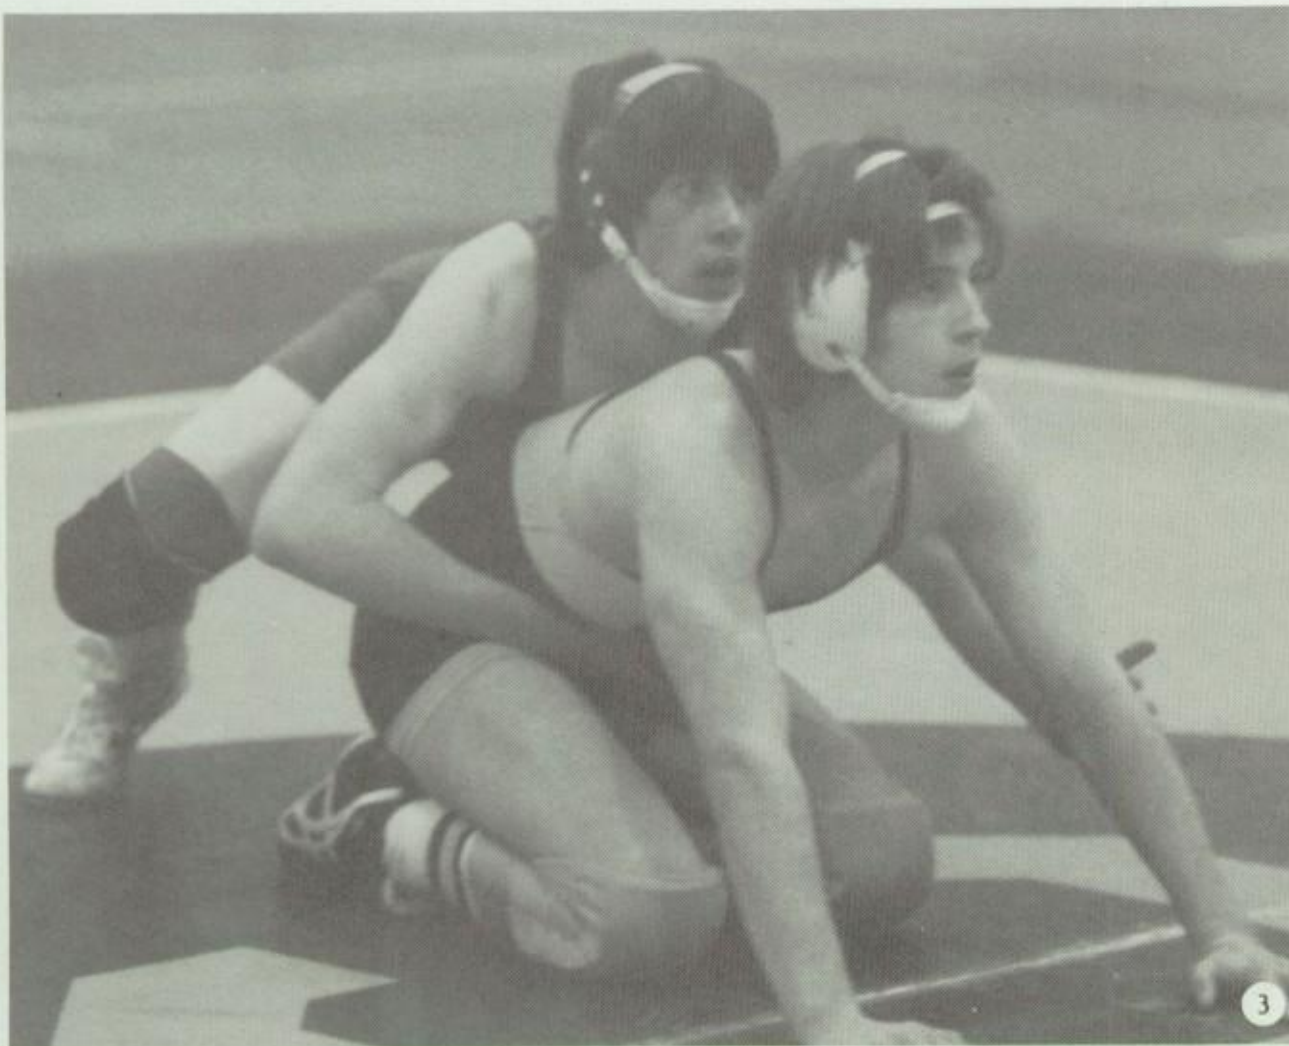

1. Lenny Drexler trying for an escape.
2. Gerald Palmer readying for a takedown.
3. Nat Medrano going for a pin.
4. Oscar Fakuhua putting a move on his opponent.
5. Rich Ellingsen after another victory.

J-V Wrestling Takes First

L-R top: Coach Fanfelle, Darrin Wright, Wally Arciniega, Phil Maloney, Darren Wild, Jim Murry, Jason Kalb, Nick Olague, Mark Saaverdra Middle row: Ed Smith, Troy Pewitt, Sean Mununo, Gualberl Yeo, Jarvis Mair, Tim McGrevy, Rod Ruiz, Russ Kaniuth Bottom: George Katout, Frank Tuccori, John Carroll, Dante Laura, Tom Ramirez, John Roumbanis, Shawn Kilgore

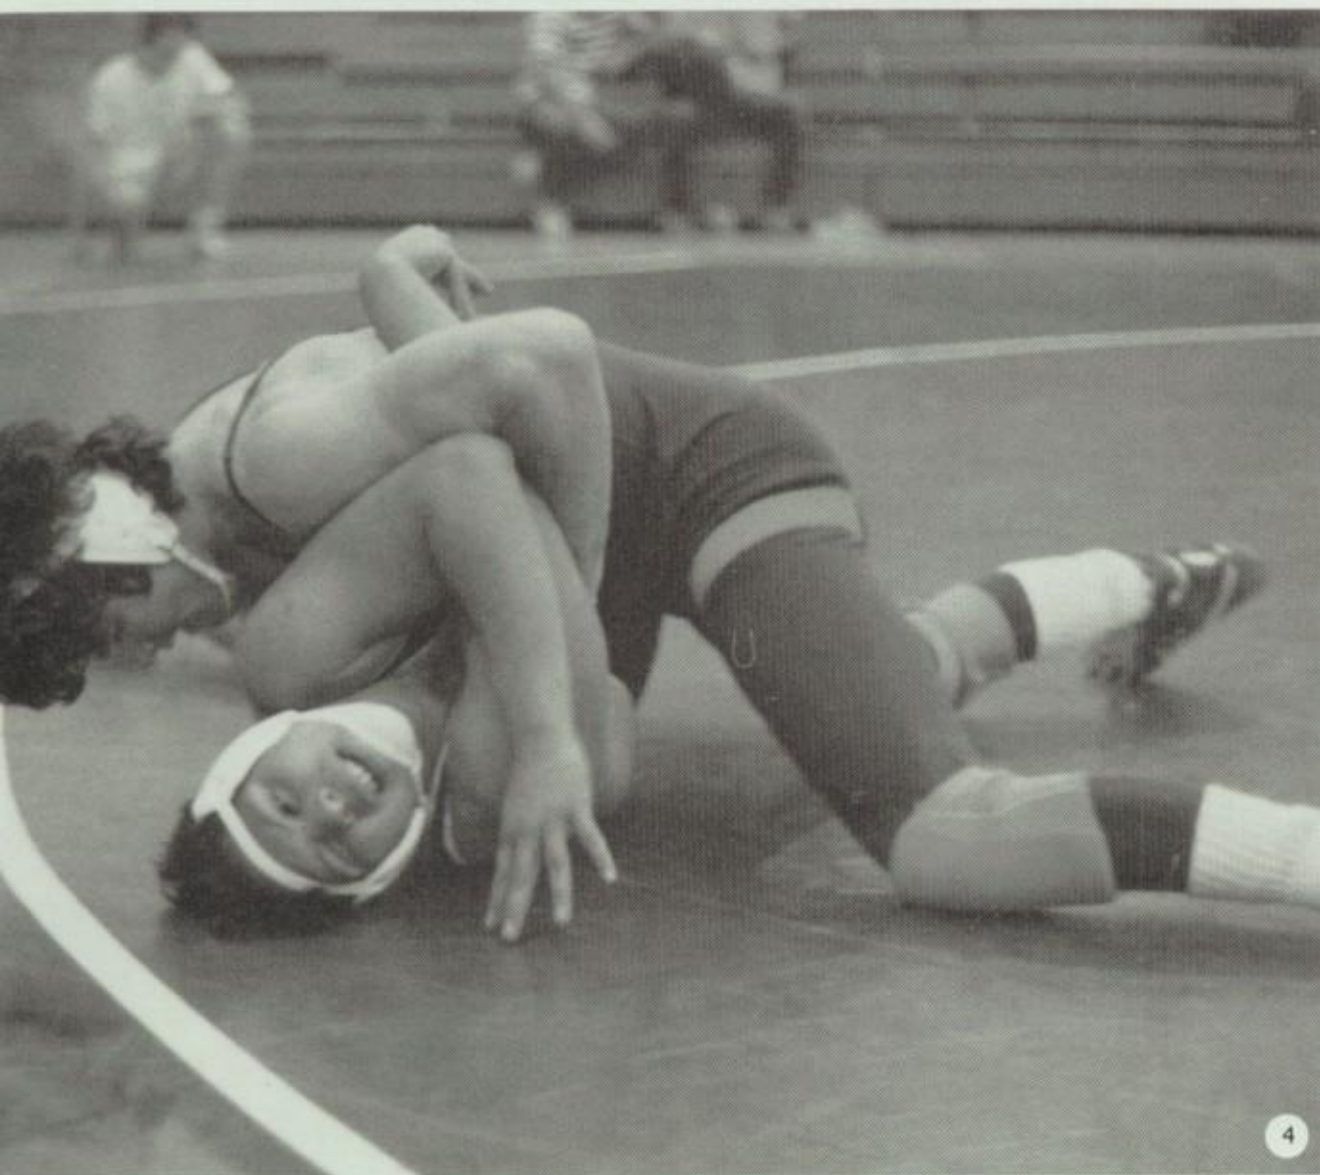

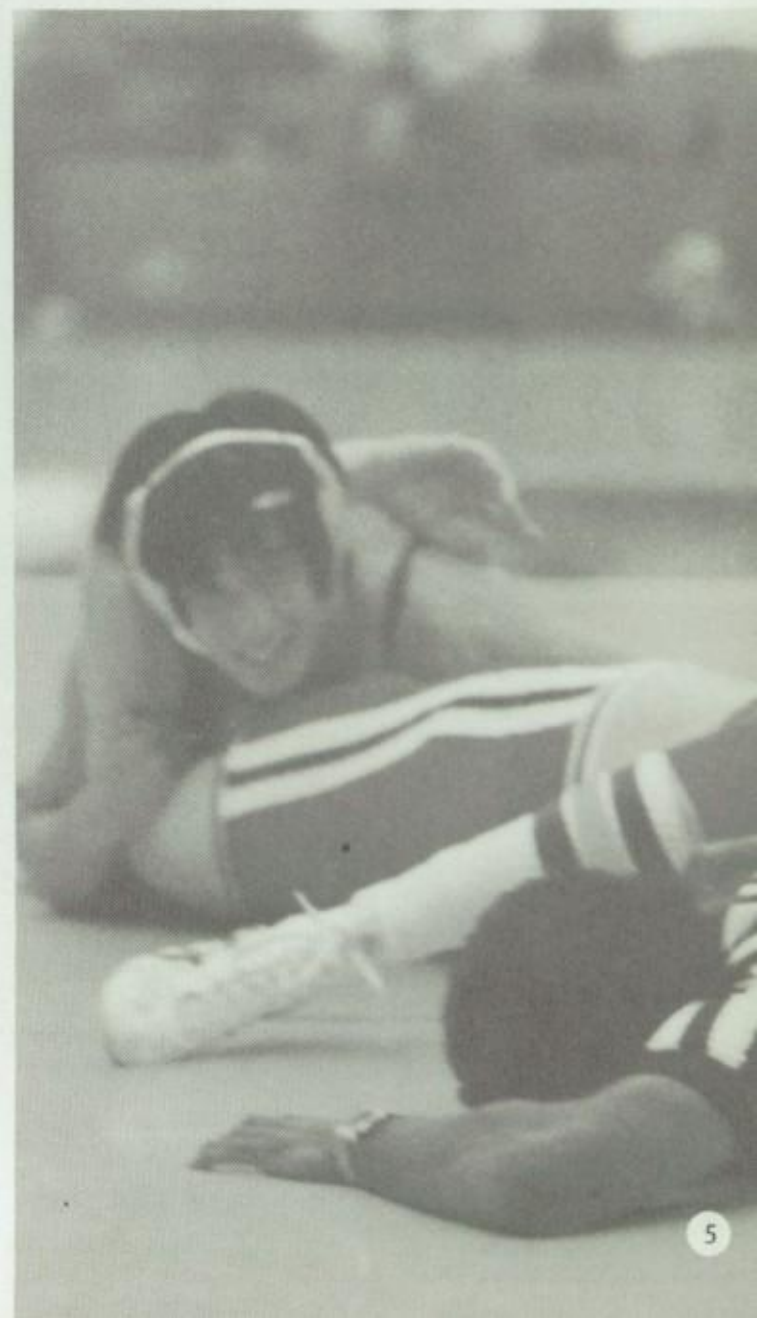

This year's Frosh-Soph team, also directed by Coach Fanfelle, dominated the league much as the Varsity did. Their lone defeat was their first league loss in the last three years.

The team was led by sophomore John Roumbanis's 22-0 record. He was followed by Jarvis Mahe's 16-1 record and Gualbert Yeo's 20-9 mark. Top freshmen included Captain Troy Pewitt (22-10) followed by Tom Ramirez (21-3). This squad also won the league championship by a healthy margin.

League champions included Frank Toccari, John Carroll, Tom Ramirez, John Roumbanis, Sean Muneno, Gualbert Yeo, Jarvis Mahe, Tim McGarvey, and Rod Ruiz. That's 9 championships out of 13 possible.

1. Richie goes for the pin.
2. Mark sticks his opponent.
3. Milo gets ready to see the light.
4. Lenny turns his opponent in the first round.
5. "Hi, coach!"

Varsity Soccer Misses Playoffs By Two

This year's Varsity soccer squad, coached by Vince Marchi, appeared to be a preseason contender. But as the season progressed their playoff hopes gradually slipped through their fingers and they struggled to a 3-7 finish and ninth place finish. Despite the weak showing the Mustangs were still in the playoff hunt until they dropped their final two decisions. It was a season of tough luck which even coach Marchi couldn't explain. There were nagging injuries such as the one which sidelined Steve Bowker for the final four games, and five losses wore by only one goal.

The season was not without its highlights. There was a spirited thrashing of playoff bound Menlo School, and to top it off they beat Mills.

Fine performances were put in by Bimal Prassad, Steve Bowker, Marco Cardelli, Brian McDonagh, Steve Tachera, Kevin O'Regan, Bob Castillo and Jeff Ruhland.

1. Tachera passes to Bowker.
2. Marco leaps to head the ball.
3. Steve kicks one down field.
4. O'Regan goes for the Goal.
5. McDonagh says, "Reff, what's the problem?"

Spikes High - Frosh Soph Soccer

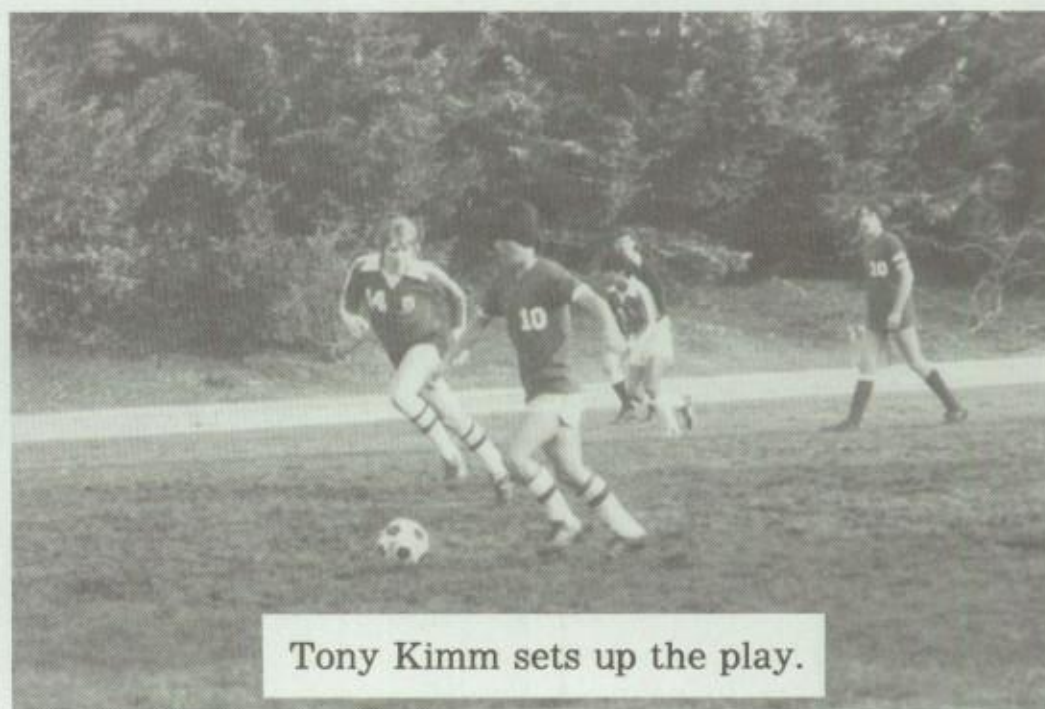

Coach Jerry Uribe guided this year's Frosh - Soph soccer players to an impressive 5-3-3 record, good for a fourth place finish. Outstanding players included leading scorer Ziggy Mattern (6 goals), Dave Tachera, Tony Kim and Juan Carlos Santa Maria. The team worked hard and learned their skills well and should do well as Varsity players.

Girls Soccer-Only The Beginning

Top L-R Coach Manzilla, N. Shawler, G. Hartje, C. Sundborg, C. Hill, V. Butler, L. Haahsen Bottom M. Rivera, V. Prasad, C. Paulotto, K. Mullen, S. Zieman, J. Belluomanie, S. Carrillo Missing K. Holland, J. Barresse

Over the past decade soccer has grown faster than any sport in America. Thus, out of popular demand the P.E. department added a girls soccer team to this year's program. Although they struggled to an 0-6-1 record, the girls learned quite a bit and enjoyed themselves. This year's team was like an expansion club and should do well in the future.

Varsity Baseball Aims For CCS

Capuchino has always had an awesome baseball tradition. Championship pennants date back to the 1950's. Two years ago the team finished second in the CCS and last year won a Co-Championship in the MPL. This year's group are primarily seniors who took the JV title as sophomores. Coach Pete Haramis expects this squad to live up to Capuchino's high historical standards.

There are four starters returning from last year's Co-Championship squad. They include all-league pitcher Nick Kroenke, all-leaguer Steve Bowker, shortstop Rick Holm, and catcher Paul Goff. These four will provide the nucleus of this year's team. John Durney and Adam Battani who played minor roles last year are expected to step in and start this year. Paul Bartke, injured last year, should fill the number two pitching spot. Steve Angeloni is the only junior able to break the starting line-up, and will be counted on to swing the bat well. Rich Montoya and Mike Banks look to solidify the outfield while Jim Owens, Dennis Chambliss and Pete Castro are battling to break into the starting line-up.

During the early season the team was hampered by the large amount of rain. They managed to play two games and what amounted to "mudball". They emerged with a one-one record. But as spring comes around, the field dries, and the wheather gets warm, we all expect to see this squad at the top of the PAL.

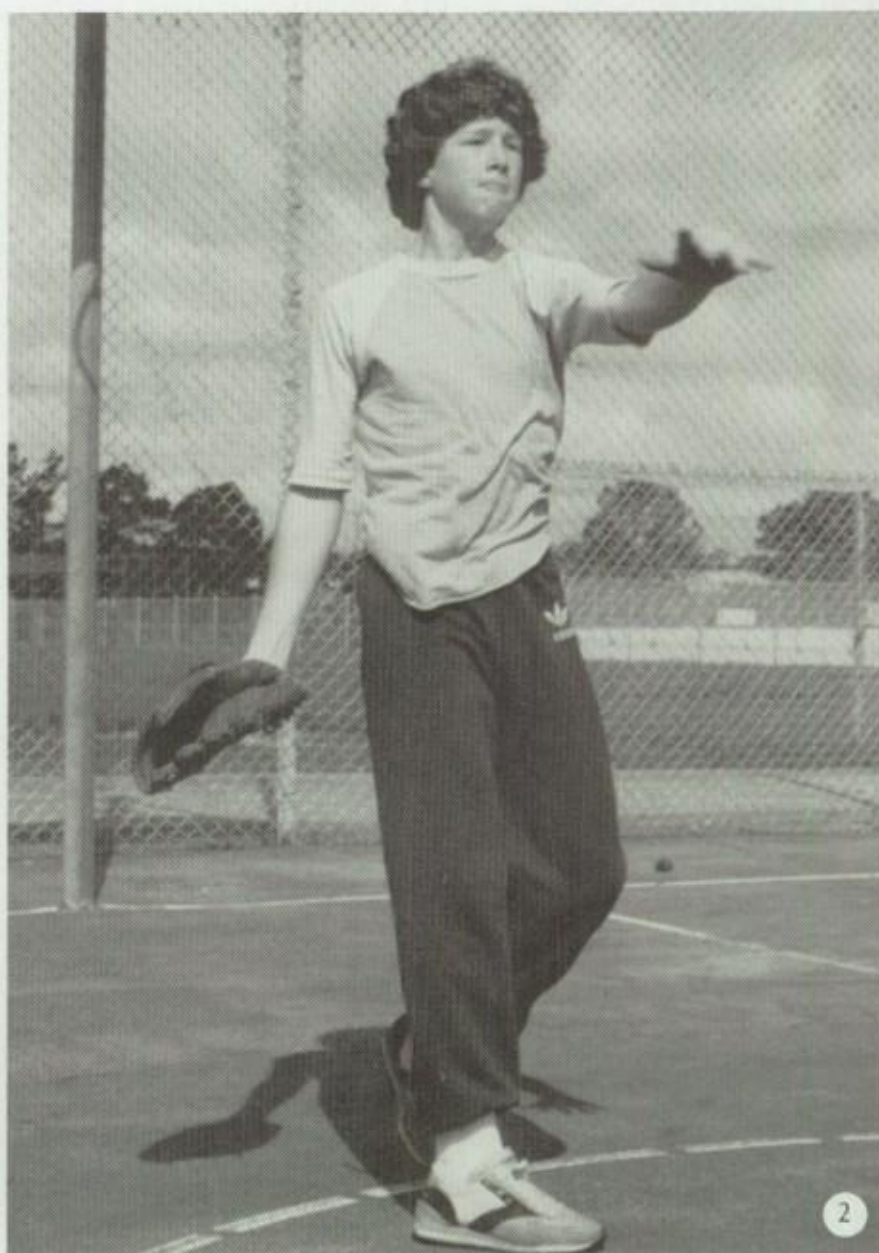

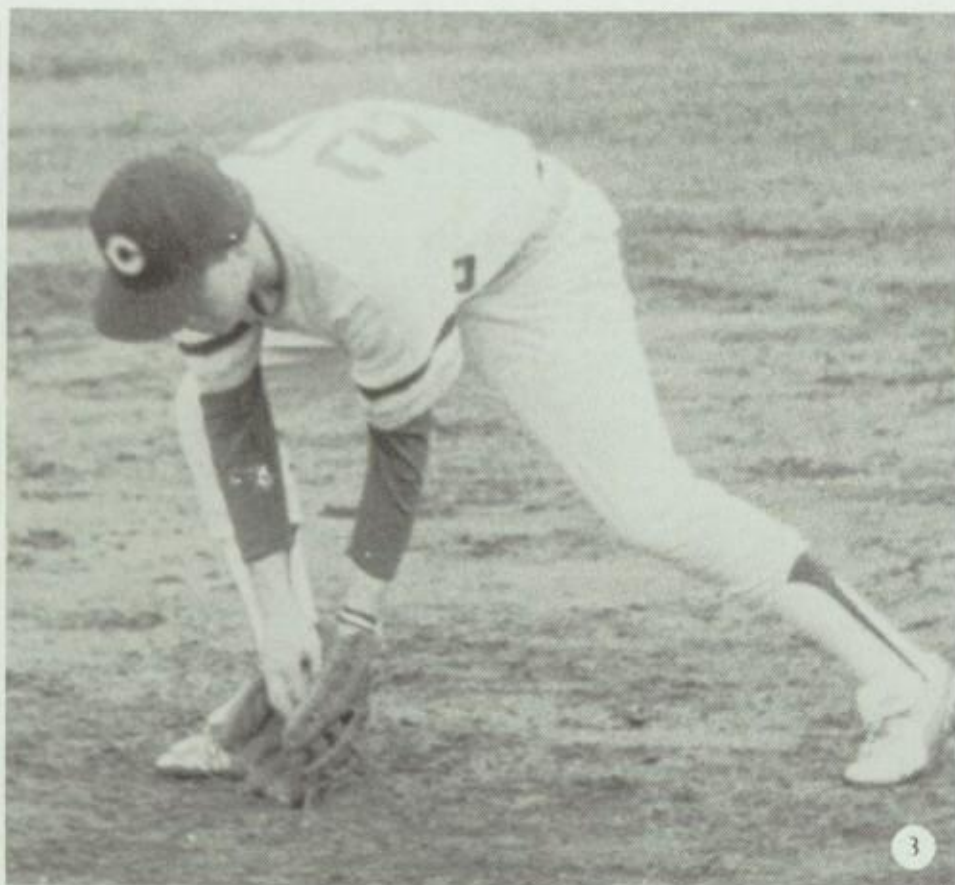

1. Mike awaits the pitch.
2. John reaches high for the catch.
3. Jim Owens warming up.
4. Paul goes for the out.
5. Pete throws one home.

Frosh-Soph Has High Hopes

Top Row: Coach Brondolo, J. Zlatlunich, S. Puchini, R. LaPuyad, R. Masseroni, D. Wild, M. Freidland
Middle Row: M. O'Dea, T. Ramirez, T. Puit, A. Picazzo, T. Clee, B. Blair Bottom Row: M. Kilgarif, S. Kilgore,
M. Mephram, K. Stratten

With only one sophomore who saw significant action last year, second year coach Al Brondolo faces the task of winning with inexperience. Yet, he feels he has the talent to do it.

Mike Friedland will be counted on heavily at the plate, on the mound, and in the field. Support will have to come from such players as Steve Puccini and freshman Troy Pewitt, Bobby Blair and Robert Lapuyade. With Friedland and Lapuyade as his starting pitchers, coach Brondolo feels he has the talent to do well.

1. Rob Lapuyade on the mound.
2. Mike Kilgarif with a mean throw.
3. The third baseman scoops one.
4. On the mound, firing one home.
5. The team practices on the courts.
6. Mike O'Dea dives for a ball.

Varsity Swingers Come Through

Top Row: T. Natani, K. Price, A. McNaughton, D. Velez, Coach Laclergue
Middle Row: L. Borg, K. Kolb, D. Bertling, M. Fox, E. Medrano
Bottom Row: C. Golden, G. Morgan, S. McKimmie, M. Orrante

Under the direction of Coach Don Laclergue, this year's Varsity Softball squad should be very competitive. Despite being hampered by the rain, Coach Laclergue is heading into the league season optimistically. Seniors Shauna McKimmie and Laura Borg will provide the leadership. Junior Gigi Morgan, a starter last year, will be counted on heavily and sophomore hurler Marlene Rante represents hope for the future.

Frosh-Soph Does It Again

This year's J.V. Softball team is going to rely heavily on Freshman to do well. Although sophomores Ciara Tantilla and Lorie Pruese should do well, Freshman such as Michelle Garcia, Nancy Castro and Donna Duggan will have to do well for the team to do well. Coach Bob Cooper feels that the team can be competitive

Tennis Striving For Excellence

Over the last few years, Capuchino tennis has struggled. Unfortunately this year appears to be no exception. After dropping its first three matches, any chances of team honors look bleak. However, the team has two strong singles players in seniors Steve Rider and Kevin Duggan. Coach Ernie Schnurpfeil believes both should do well in the PAL finals tournament.

Top Row- Coach Ernie Schnurpfeil, Garrett Kehr, Marcus Chang, Bruce Zitlau, Tony Hart, John Xerogeanes, Bennis Balling, Kevin Duggan, Mark Baron, Jarvis Mahe, Hohn Stenson 2nd Row- Tony Grech, Matt Belluomini, Boug Barr, Joe Novelli, Adrian Ivanov, John Cellantano, Rick Geimer, Eric Dachauer, Tom Hamamcian, Daryl Tobenes, Ron Faatz 3rd Row- Yuzuro Itoh, Mike Yip, Dante Laura, Chris Cocolos, Steve Rider, Bill Bertini, Mike Fox, Ted Tolentino, Tom Flahaven, Joe Mizuchi

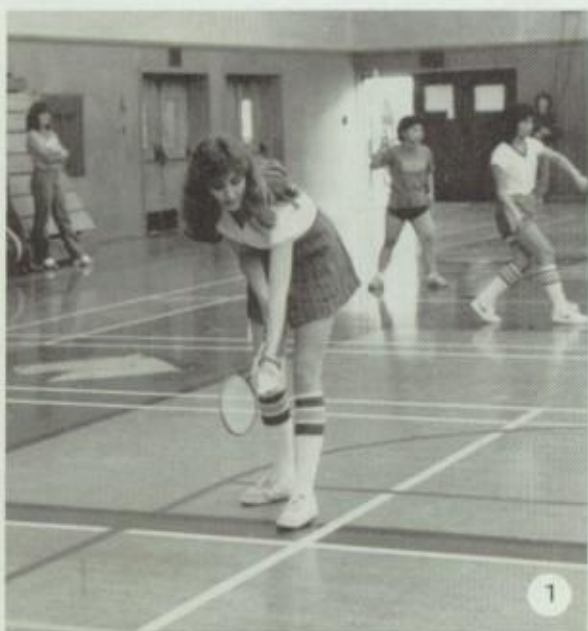

1. John Xerogeanes waiting for a return.
2. Coach Schnurpfeil giving the team a tip.
3. Schnurpfeil looking over the prospects.
4. Adrian Ivanov follows through on the forehand.

Badminton Young But Experienced

This year's badminton squad is being coached for the fifth consecutive year by Lorie Rakstins. The team is probably the most inexperienced of her five teams. The lone senior, Kris Mylin, will be counted on heavily for leadership. Junior Marci Hernandez and sophomores Noreen Baughman and Jody Maule will be expected to do well for the team and also in the PAL. Despite their inexperience, Coach Rakstins is optimistic.

1. Jody Maule ready to serve.
2. Vicki rushing to the net.
3. Marci Hallaway ready to return serve.

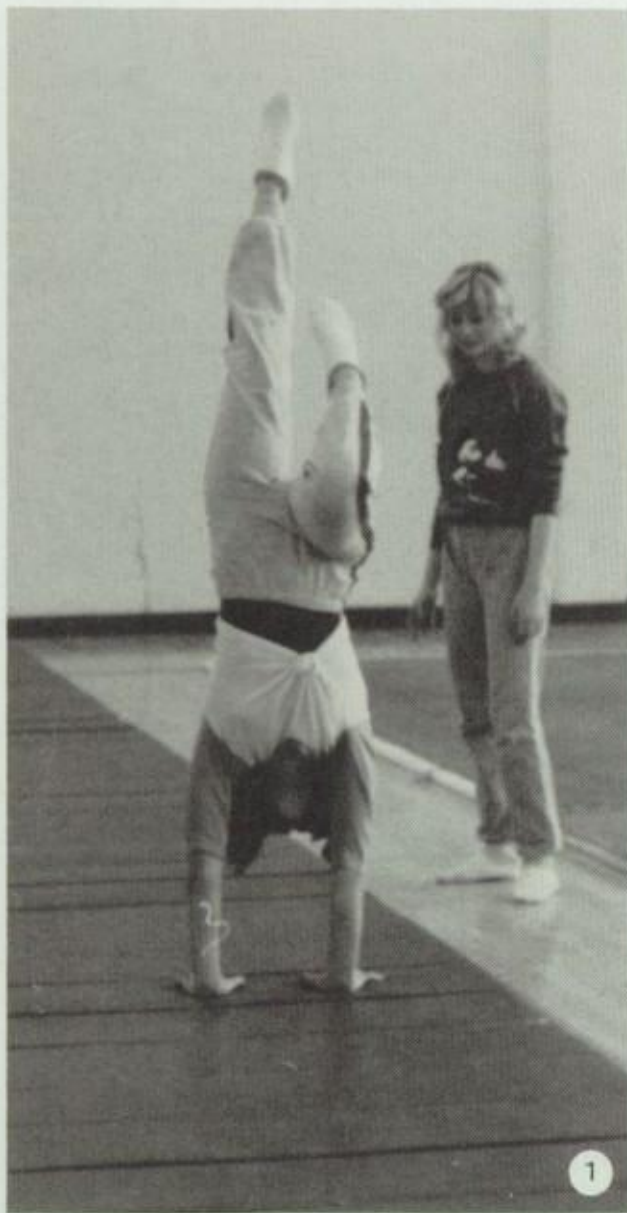

Boys Gymnastics

4. Ghassan Krayem working on rings.

Girls Gymnastics

Both the boys and girl's gymnastics are being coached by Coach Fry. The boy's squad with returners Bob Shawler, George Rix and Dave Cima should do well. The girls lack the experience they had in the past, but they should be very competitive.

1. Vicky Doukakis with a handstand.
2. Vickey Bastel working on a routine.
3. Vicky Doukakis doing a flip.

It's In The Hole

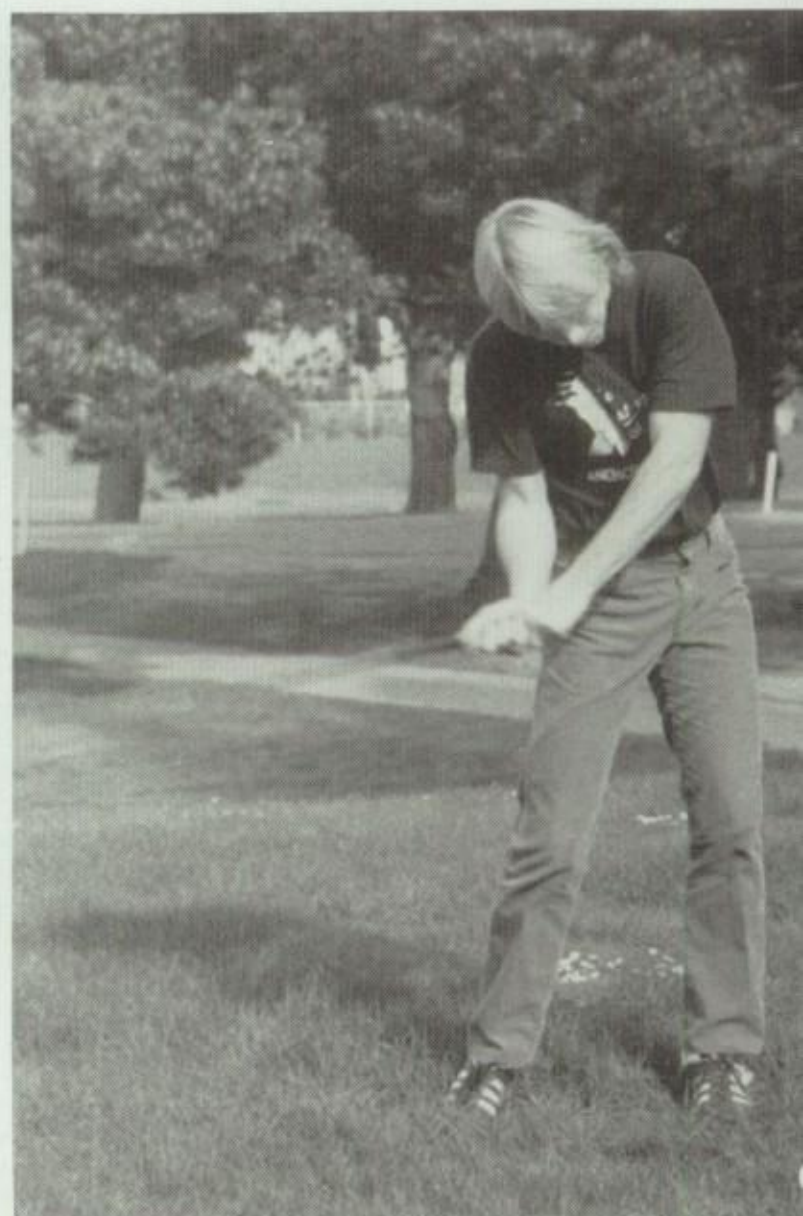

This year's golf team is looking towards its season optimistically. Despite lack a "star" golfer, the team should do very well with a nucleus of "solid" golfers in Rich Bin, J. Michelucci and Bob Cresta. Other players include Brian McConagh, Jim Klingler, and Dave Cresta. The team is coached by Tulio Bertini.

LR-Brian McDonagh, Dave Cresta, Jim Clingler

1. Jim Klingler deep in concentration.
2. Brian McConagh chips away.

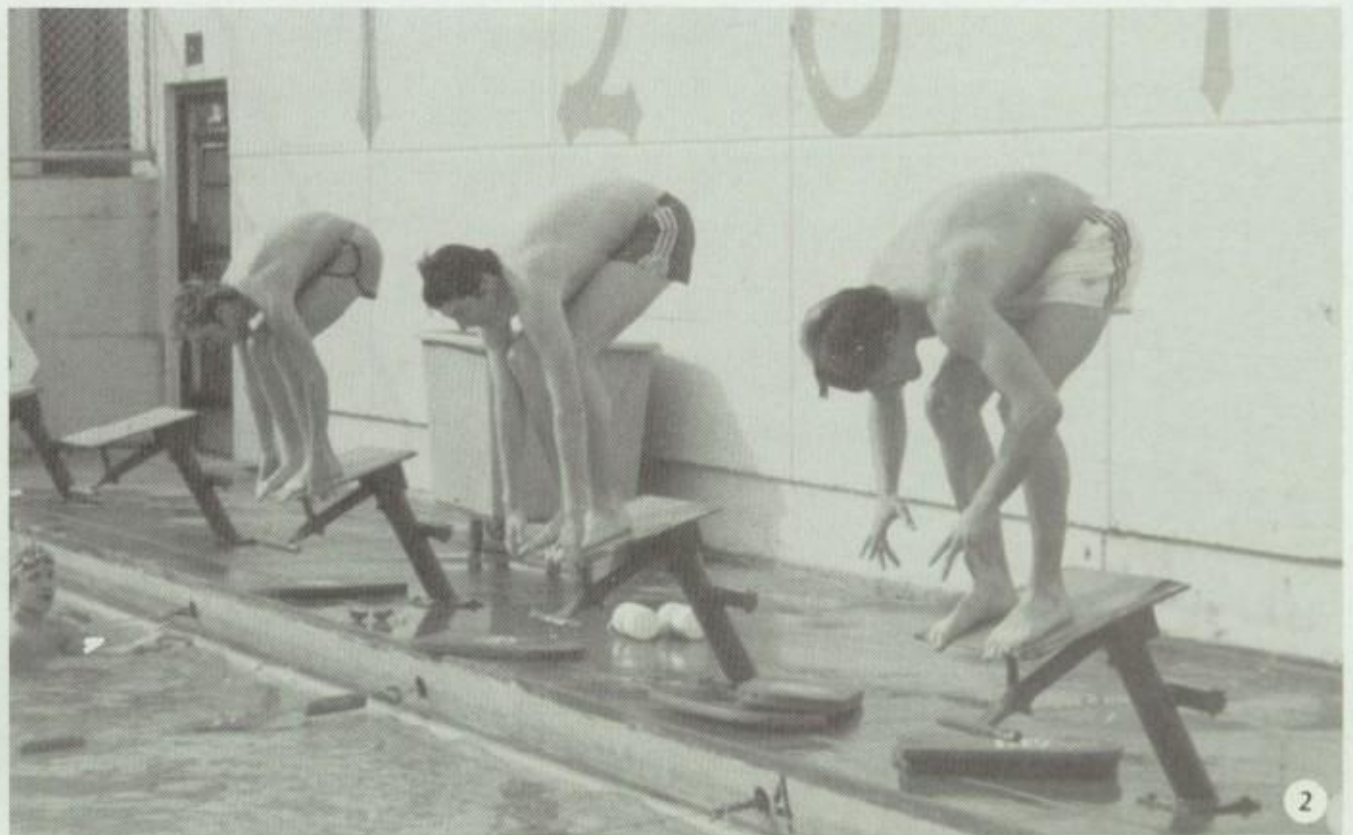

Swimmers On Their Mark

Capuchino's swimmers were very young last year and it is hoped that this year they will mature into a winning squad. Returning swimmers who will form the nucleus of this swim team include David Glew, Eric Wilcox, Brian Dawson, Renard Graham, Keith Pecararo, Himat Singh, Roy Singh, and Gina "the fish" Marcelli.

L-R Top: B. Dawson, E. Wilcox, D. Glew, Y. Wito, B. Kious Second: G. Marcelli, K. Pecoraro, D. Simms, J. Stenback, R. Singh Third: S. Rael, S. Brush, J. Duplissea, C. Brush Bottom: J. Jenny, M. Rivera, Carl Usterman, C. Blednick

2. Swimmers take their mark.
3. Diving for a victory.

No Hurdle Too High

After reaching the State finals last year as only a sophomore, all eyes this track season are on distance runner Paul Ghidossi. He is expected to wage an all-out assault on the Capuchino record book and possibly on the PAL record book. He is hopeful that he can return to the State meet this year and hopes that his experience there will allow him to place.

There are many other outstanding athletes also on the track and field squad. Shotputter Oscar Fakahua, pole vaulter Steve Tachera and long jumper Marco Cardelli will lead the field events. While Ghidossi runs, sprinters Jeff Ruhland and Johnny Brown as well as distance runner Omar Vrbina will pave the way along the track. All around performer Mike Allison will be outstanding. The girls' squad will be led by Nancy Trueman with help from Nedra Shawler, Dee Dee Concannon and Kristi Duerre.

Publications is a special class; in room 318 we learned about the responsibilities of putting out this yearbook. There were deadlines to meet and traditions to break, as the seniors learned with the class picture. Our photographers were busy taking candids while the rest of us made layouts and cropped pictures. Producing this yearbook was indeed a "Challenge."

Molly,

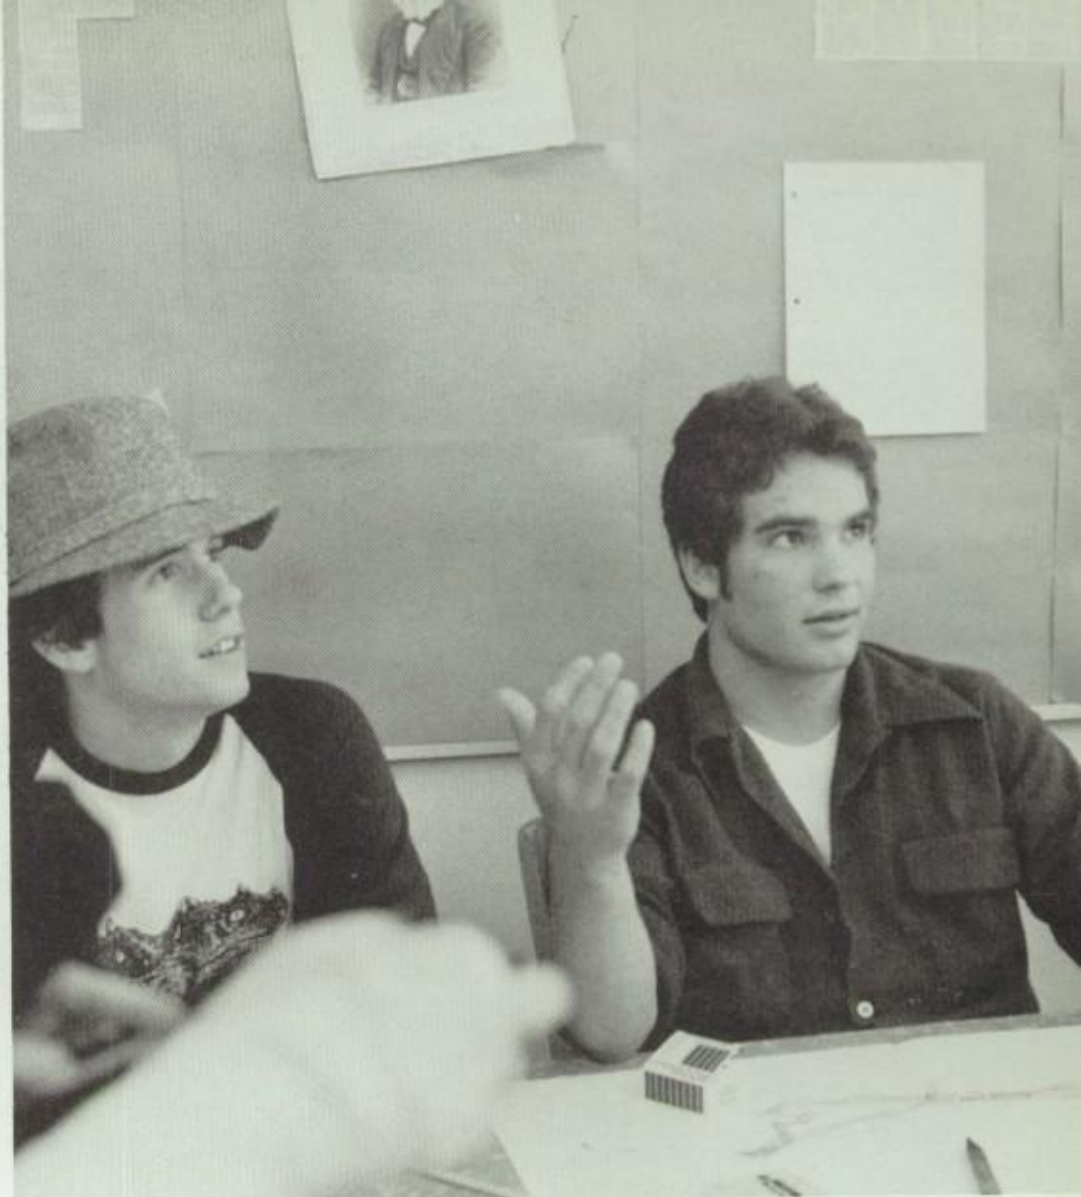

What a great year. I've sure had a lot of fun with you sitting behind me in Spanish while we made wisecracks about various people in the class (COMO SE DICE *★!☆ en Español!!) Take care of yourself, have a great summer and good luck at Cap next year. Hasta luego!

Love + Friends Always, Bill

The Stampede newspaper is as familiar to the students of Capuchino as the "C" in the Rally Court. This year, however, that familiar paper underwent a major change. This change was the insertion of a new advisor, Mr. Smith, who took the helm and did a fine job guiding the staff.

The staff this year was simply outstanding in its work. The crisp, clear investigative writing of Bill Graham along with the informative sports journalism of Mike Selleck and the insightful Rock-n-Roll pieces by Ray Savage made the 1982-83 editions of the Stampede creatively comparable to any school newspaper around. Other talented journalists included Kelly Pointer, Michelle Muller, Saied Mirfatah, Cathy Herbert, Lynn Giannini, Dan Dowling, Christine McAllister and Leesha Gotelli. All of this was co-ordinated by news Editor Bill Graham and Sports Editor Mike Selleck.

Student Government at Capuchino was led this year by a fine group of dedicated and committed students. Julie DeLugg filled the Presidency during the Fall Semester. Her Executive Board included Vice-President: Adam Battani, Treasurer: Bob Shawler, Secretary: Diane Caramucci, Business Director: Steve Bowker, President-elect: Linda Tarantino. Despite an unusual amount of financial and administrative problems, this group cleared the hurdles and continued on to a very successful semester. A few of their accomplishments included setting up a successful Cap Bucks program as well as a year long class compition. Other successes included a Blood Drive and Flood Drive. The success of their terms in office was a tribute to their hard work and dedication.

The Spring Semester saw new leaders take command. Rico Medina became the President and his Board included Vice President Nedra Shawler, Treasurer Linda Tarentino, Secretary Diane Caramuccia, Business Director Bob Shawler, Treasurer-Elect Kristina Marin and President-Elect Dan Dowling. Freed from the problems of the Fall Semester, this energetic group expected an outstanding term of office.

Good Luck to Dan Dowling next year as the Fall Semester President.

Even The Nights Are Better

On the evening of November 6, 1982, Capuchino held its 33rd Annual Queens Ball in the school cafeteria. Everyone enjoyed the evening as we danced to the sound of "Music Masters."

Spirit Week

Spirit Week at Capuchino is an age old tradition which is always held the week of the Homecoming game versus Mills. This year the traditional week was only three days long, due to holidays. However, the Cheerleaders opted not to break tradition and make it a three day Spirit Week. Monday's theme was Crazy Hat and T-shirt Day, Tuesday was Preppy - Surfer - Punk Rock Day and Wednesday was the traditional Green and Gold Day. Wednesday, the day of the game, was supposed to be the traditional exchange rally with Mills, but they were afraid what might happen to their preppy alligator shirts and their topsiders if they went anywhere near Cap, so they were no-shows. The entire week was presided over by Capuchino's Homecoming Court which had been announced the weekend before at the dance. The week was concluded with a 13-8 thrashing of Mills in the mud.

The Capuchino Band, 82-83 in review

The Cap Band began its exciting fall season with summer practices for new band members in July and for the whole band in August. They attended five band reviews in the fall: Concord on October 2, Santa Cruz on October 16, Foothill on October 23, Pacific Grove on October 30 and Lodi on November 6. The mighty Mustang Marching Band placed second in their division in all of the reviews except Lodi where they captured first place in their division and second overall out of over thirty bands participating. The Majorette team led by captain Andrea Martinez had an outstanding season which began with U.S.A. summer camp in Santa Barbara, where they received a Superior Trophy and Spirit Stick.

During the regular season, they placed first in Concord and Lodi, second in Santa Cruz and third in Pacific Grove. The flag team and Drum Major Trina Obler placed third and second respectively at Pacific Grove. The Pep Band kept the Varsity football team's spirits high at their 5 home games. The Band culminated its fall season with a trip to the All Western Band Review in Long Beach over Thanksgiving weekend. The majorettes captured a second place in the Majorette team competition, and were ranked the second best team in the state of California. The band performed at Disneyland the next day.

The Christmas season heralded the band as they hosted the second annual Santa Claus Parade in San Francisco. They were sponsored by the GAP Corporation. Next, students from the Music and Drama departments combined efforts to present "An Evening of Holiday Music" on December 16th in the auditorium.

The Spring Semester began with the band performing at the Hyatt Hotel in Burlingame for the California Police Chief's convention. "Stop the World, I Want to Get Off" was this spring's musical comedy which combined music and drama students together in perfect harmony. Other springtime performances included the St. Patrick's Day Parade in San Francisco at which they were host band, concerts at the Junior High and Elementary schools, band reviews in Tracy and San Mareo, the Millbrae Lions and Posey parades, and a variety of special engagements at convention held on the Peninsula and in San Francisco. The Capuchino Color Guard, Flag Team, Drill Team and Majorette Team all competed for top honors at the Ygnacio Valley Auxiliary Competition held in February, while the pep band entertained at basketball games. The band held a Casino Night in March and its fourth annual PLAYATHON to raise money for the purchase of new and much needed instruments.

Music Festivals, Honor Bands and a Spring Concert highlighted the very musical spring which came to an exciting close at the Band's annual banquet held at the Airport Hilton.

Congratulations to the Capuchino Band for another outstanding year.

FACULTY

Administration . . . Its The Principal Of The Thing

Samuel Johnson: Principal

George Robinson: Assistant Principal

Too often, like Gatsby, we tend to spend so much of our lives "in between time;" a foot in the past, a glance to the future. Others will say, sometimes cynically, that there are really only two good places - where we've been and where we're going.

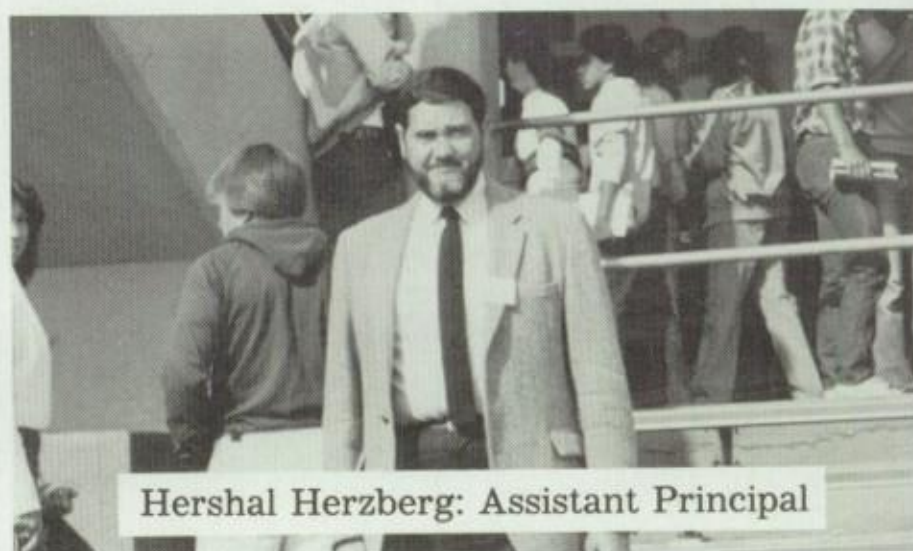

I would like to think that somehow your years at Capuchino High School provided a striking four-year moment where, in a sense, time stood still, clocks froze, past and future blended somehow but only to heighten the bittersweet things one lives through at that time, in that place. If we the faculty, and you, our graduates, have touched each other, even slightly, with a little sentiment and a bit of intellect and a lot of wisdom, then all our lives are ever so enriched by just having known one another.

Fondly and best wishes always,

Samuel Johnson, Jr.

Charles Kent: Assistant Principal

Hershal Herzberg: Assistant Principal

Counselors . . . Help, Direction, Wisdom! They Guide Us Towards Success.

Leo Vannucci, Gerald Arrigoni: Assistant Principal, Carl Lueder, William Greenleaf, David Kennedy

Carl Lueder

The yearbook staff sends its best wishes to Carl Lueder, who retires this year as head of the counseling department.

Mr. Lueder is married to the former Betty Ferrari; they have three children. He completed his education at Fresno State.

Before he joined the counseling department at Cap in 1963, he coached football and taught math, physical education, and driver's training.

Carl Lueder is currently the commissioner of the New Peninsula Athletic League, a position he continues to hold after he retires from his counseling duties.

In Memory:

On January 19, 1983, one of Capuchino's finest and most respected counselors, David Kennedy, passed away after suffering a heart attack.

Mr. Kennedy enjoyed living an active life; he liked taking walks, playing tennis and badminton, and canoeing in the summertime with his family. "We were lucky to have him as long as we did," acknowledged his son, Dave Kennedy, after telling about the trip to Europe Dave and his wife had planned for this summer.

Mr. Kennedy began his career at Capuchino but transferred to Crestmoor High School when it opened. He returned to Capuchino three years ago when Crestmoor closed. During these years he served as an assistant principal for guidance and counseling, and was also chairman of the scholarship committee.

David Kennedy influenced the lives of many students and their families in a most positive way. We will never forget his devotion and commitment to his work and his students.

Longs Bayhill Center in San Bruno wants to congratulate the class of 1983 on your graduation!

We also want to encourage future graduating classes to apply at Longs for a career in Retail!

I hate people who have their yearbooks all filled up. Bitch. (JK) I am l!?!? fun. I wasn't in your class. I was with some strange (is there anyway it make it bigger?) water out for gall stone cases (or cups) whatever! Stay a cute & very unique love always, Sharon. P.S. why don't you think a little!!!

Thank you Molly!!!

Molly I hope you have a great time in New York filled with gorgeous guys! When you get back we'll have something and exciting to do. You are a really great friend, weird friend, funny friend, just an all around great friend!!! Remember you! (only because of your mails, though)

Love Always Carol!!!

Molly,

↑ THAT SOUNDS SO FORMAL!

But anyway ~~drop 1/5~~. Well here we are at the Big D once again signing yearbooks. Sounds fun, well it is.
I still think they should of had a talent show! We would have been great w/ our 1999 act! I really can't think of things to write here in 1/2 middle of B. King but I'll try. Well, I guess you be leaving to N.Y. soon, ~~and~~ and I won't see you that much, so you'd better be sure and write ~~my~~ every other day like you promised! or I BE MAD! I BE DAMN MAD! And you know, Molly, I really can't wait to grow up and be sophisticated like Chris, but until then well just keep on having fun times like we always had and will have! See Molly, what was 1/2 presidents name in 1938? (real good joke Molly did you make it up all by yourself?) I know this is real boring but ~~am~~ I'm really trying, really! And Molly, when your reading this, ask and any other times your mad at Chris, just ask him when 1/2 french fry belongs. Well, watch any good bikes lately? Nose? Whats nose? I always wanted to marry a designer! No. #105 (hang fire! Pizza Place! ROBERT!) a yellow shirt, white ~~pedal~~ peddle pushers and an aqua belt, in 1/2 city? You don't even berp out loud, so if you ever in 1/2 market for a boy friend. PEON!?! IN 2 VISION! I'd rather be boiled in oil! Hey Brillo. Its really cool when you click your gum Christine, really. Sophistication if you don't get me that coke you owe me, its going to turn into a dinner. Well, theres alot more I could write, but to make a long story short (too late!)
we've been 1/2 best of friends for a long time and I hope it stays that way forever!!! Love always

 I remember when you were supposed to be in my Spanish class 1st semester.
 Mr. Miguel always called your name, but you were never there. You delinquent!
 Well, be sure to get your Celica this summer,
 and, don't drink when you're drunk!
 Love,
 Tim Hermann

Molly
 This summer
 will be great.
 Don't drink too much like you did that night of the Dance.
 Love always Jeff

Molly -
 Well I only met you a few days ago but I know next year we will become better friends.
 I hope you have a great summer. Maybe me, you + Cynthia will go out some weekend.
 Well I'll see ya. Keep in touch. Love ya.
 Michelle (Bara)

Michelle
 I like you a lot. You are a good person. I hope you have a great summer. I hope you have a good time. I hope you have a good time.
 Love ya.
 Michelle

Molly, believe that I met you this year because it seems like I've known you for years.
(Well, no, really. We've had a LOT of fun in Badmiton however you spell it.) We remember all the times we had to wear those ugly skirts! Too and we couldn't have been permanent partners,

but maybe next year, right? Maybe though. I don't know if I can make another season of
Mrs. Rakstins!
But really, you have been a super friend to me. I'm so glad that you came to Cap. I'm glad that we sat (kinda) next to each other in English
because I love seeing your clothes - geez Molly let's buy few clothes.

But I'm
sad we're friends.
You better call me during the summer, chick!

Love
Carolyn

Love ya always
